SAN ANTONIO CLIMATE

San Antonio has a modified sub-tropical climate. While the summers are warm, very high temperatures are rare. Winter months are mild with very few below-freezing temperatures. Popularly known as the place "Where the Sunshine Spends the Winter," San Antonio enjoys about 50% of the possible sunshine during the winter and more than 70% the rest of the year.

First please accept my apologies for the misnumbered pages in our January 1973 issue. They may be clipped out and taped back in alphabetical order or struggle as I am doing to hunt things out. Hope by next January I will understand everything better.

I am sure there may be other errors from time to time but for them I am sorry. We, Frank and I spent some time in Florida in an Avion trailer and needless to say they don't hold my genealogy work, Mayflower work and a January (Index) issue. I did my best which was not too good.

Am getting ready for a trip to Texas in the trailer and to stops into Montana and Canada. The July Issue will be a little late or can be done in small area again. Am anxious to see everyone that attends the reunion. Let's make it a big year again.

This issue has many new items or lineages that may help others on their search for some items needed for Mayflower acceptance.

Read all the QUERIES and see if some help may be offered to these people. If it is possible send me a letter (copy) too, so I can see if any good results are made.

Sincerely yours, Your Editor, Mrs. Frank A. Crismore

SOULE KINDRED TOUR to EUROPE in 1974

There has been enough interest generated in the proposed trip to Europe in 1974 as proposed on page 131 of the October 1972 Soule Newsletter, for us to plan further. The flight cost, roundtrip, will be just:

$245

Departure dates to be determined, but trip will last 23 days and will be scheduled for mid-summer.

Departure/return cities: PHILADELPHIA and BOSTON

Arrival/return cities: LONDON and FRANKFURT

Costs to be the same no matter where you board or deplane. This is a charter flight. Airport taxes, if any, are not included. The flight includes:

- *FIRST CLASS TYPE SERVICE, no economy treatment on Soule Kindred flight.
- *66 lbs. OF LUGGAGE, no need to skimp on clothes or --- souvenirs.
- *"IN SEASON" FLIGHT, for the best weather in Europe.
- * MAJOR AIRLINE COMPANY, no "fly by night" unknown airlines.
- * MULTIPLE STOPS IN EUROPE -- get off or board the plane at either London or Frankfurt.

For those who would also like an economy tour of England and the Pilgrim country, we propose a room/board/bus tour which will cost approximately $10.00 per day. This fee covers ground transportation, youth hostel type lodging, meals, and tour admission fees. There are no age limits but you do need to be a Soule who is young at heart.

If you or any kindred Soule you know are interested, please send us the following information today so we might plan better. Remember it takes approximately one year to plan and charter a whole plane. Naturally priority will be given those who send in the below form first.

Gentlemen:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

We have further determined you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code, because you are an organization described in section 509(a)(2).

You are not liable for social security (FICA) taxes unless you file a waiver of exemption certificate as provided in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act. You are not liable for the taxes imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Since you are not a private foundation, you are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, you are not automatically exempt from other Federal excise taxes.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes under sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

If your purposes, character, or method of operation is changed, you must let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status. Also, you must inform us of all changes in your name or address.

If your gross receipts each year are normally more than $5,000, you are required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax, by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. The law imposes a penalty of $10 a day, up to a maximum of $5,000, for failure to file a return on time.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

Please keep this determination letter in your permanent records.

Sincerely yours,

R. L. Plumley

GEORGE STANDISH SOULE

Dear Kindred members:

Our reunion plans for San Antonio, Texas are in the final stage now. This certainly promises to be the biggest and best Soule Reunion yet. DON'T MISS IT!

In a volunteer organization like ours, we occasionally hear complaints. One letter complained that it took only one week to receive a reply from the Mayflower Society in Plymouth, while it took a month to get a reply from Soule Kindred. Of course that's true, and one might well ask why? Several related questions might just as well follow: Why does Soule Kindred not have any permanent headquarters? Could Soule Kindred use a permanent secretary? We have come to the conclusion that we need a permanent headquarters and small staff, like any national fraternal organization. Some kind Soules need to get the ball rolling however. Would you like the honor? Remember that Soule Kindred is now incorporated as a non-profit educational association and gifts to Soule Kindred are tax deductible.

INCLUDE SOULE KINDRED IN YOUR WILL TODAY!

See you all in San Antonio,

George Soule

PS: SOULE KINDRED needs a reunion site for 1974. If you would like to invite the clan to your area, like the Harris family did this year in San Antonio, send us a letter of invitation today so we might vote on it at the reunion on June 29th.

Ambrose Bierce

From a pencil drawing by Miss F. Soule Campbell, made in 1909, in part from life and in part from a photograph by Prince, taken in Washington in 1896, which drawing was selected by Bierce as the frontispiece to the first volume of The Collected Works, Autograph Edition, and so used, Walter Neale holds that this is the best portrait of Ambrose Bierce ever made.

(from Life of Ambrose Bierce, by Walter Neale)

Howard A. Thomas of Long Island City, N. Y. found the above picture in a "Bierce-Bearse" Genealogy and noted the artist who drew the portrait was Miss F. Soule Campbell. The date was 1909. The location, Washington, which is a probable clue to Miss Campbell's residence.

There is no Soule ancestry of Ambrose Bierce lineage. The ancestral home of Barnstable is near where several of the Soule offsprings settled after leaving Duxbury.

Miss Wendy Soule graduated with honors at the 1972 spring graduating class of J. F. Ross Collegiate High School, Guelph, Ontario.

She is now employed on the secretarial staff of the Wellington County Board of Education.

Wendy is a 12th generation descendant from George Soule of the Mayflower of 1620.

Her parents are Wayne¹¹ Albert and Betty Soule, Guelph, and a granddaughter of Clyde¹⁰ and Anne Soule.

Blast Rips Navy Destroyer

Three Sailors Dead, Eight Hurt

NEWPORT, R. I. UPI) — A disabled Navy destroyer limped to its home port of Newport today after a boiler room explosion knocked out one of its engines, killed three sailors and injured eight others, four of them critically.

The 390-foot USS Basilone, a veteran of combat off Vietnam, was hit by the blast Monday night 120 miles southeast of New York City as it cruised in calm seas at the end of a day of practice maneuvers.

A Navy spokesman at Newport, Lt. Ken Galkin, said the ship had been tak-ly overhauled in drydock only last winter before its Vietnam duty.

Galkin noted that ships of the Basilone's size are equipped with two boiler and engine rooms, so the ship was able to head home at reduced speed under its own power.

Four of the injured seamen were sped by two Coast Guard helicopters to St. Albans Naval Hospital in New York City, where doctors said all were in critical condition.

They said the four had been "scalded" by hot water or steam and added "only one had his face spared." Burns on the four ranged over 50 to 80 per cent of their bodies.

Two others remained aboard the Basilone, while two more were placed aboard a sister ship, the USS Hewes, and were to be picked up by a tug boat meeting the ship off Narragansett Bay.

The Navy would not give the extent of injuries to the other four.

must be done to rectify this situation.

Two courses of action are presently underway. First, an intensive effort is being made to increase the efficiency of the operation and reduce costs to the minimum consistent with the security and health of the residents. Second, an aggressive fund-raising campaign has been instituted to defray the current deficits and build up the Endowment Fund to the point where it can produce adequate income. The immediate objective was to raise $100,000 by December 1972, because that amount was needed to ensure that the doors will remain open. This objective was achieved. The long-range goal is a $5,000,000 Endowment Fund.

Your support for this campaign to put Vinson Hall on a sound economic basis is urgently needed.

All donations are fully tax deductible, whether earmarked for a specific fund or left to the discretion of the Trustees for use as dictated by current requirements. Foundation membership subscriptions—$500 Life Membership, $25 Annual Voting Membership, and $10 Associate Non-voting Membership—are being solicited as a means of achieving a more active participation in the affairs of the Hall. If every officer, active and retired, would contribute only one dollar for each year of his active service, the needed funds would be raised.

No contribution is too small and no suggestion which might aid in finding a solution to the current emergency will be overlooked. Contributions, inquiries and suggestions should be addressed to the Director, Navy-Marine-Coast Guard Residence Foundation, U. S. Naval Observatory, Washington, D.C. 20390.

It is the firm policy of Vinson Hall that "no otherwise qualified sea-service widow shall ever be refused admission solely by reason of inability to pay." Your help and mine is needed to make this commitment a continuing reality. Please!

Vinson Hall—A Friend in Need

That Vinson Hall, a tax-exempt, non-profit institution, supported by The Navy-Marine-Coast Guard Residence Foundation and incorporated in the District of Columbia, fills a very real need is demonstrated by the fact that there are 248 residents, 85% of capacity, just three years after opening. The response to membership drives has been most enthusiastic, and the present residents are well pleased with both the facilities and the service. Currently there are applications on file for future entry by persons who are not yet eligible.

You might well ask at this point, "What sort of people are presently living in the Hall?" The answer is that, for the most part, they are just like you and me and our wives. There is a high percentage of widows, a few dependent mothers and a large number of retired officers and their wives. All regular and reserve sea-service officers become eligible as they become entitled to retirement benefits. At present there is no minimum age limit.

Residents pay an entry fee plus a monthly service charge. The amount depends upon the size and location of their apartments. Entry fees range from $7,000 to $15,000 and the average service charge is $270 per month.

Since a primary objective of Vinson Hall is to provide a home for widows of sea-service officers, widows have priority for entrance. Unfortunately, many of them do not have the resources needed to pay the full entry fee and monthly service charge. It is a sad and ironic truth that most of these widows are among the older ones who most need the care and facilities available at Vinson Hall. That's where the Foundation plays its part. At present there are a number of such residents and the Trustees project that 30% of the total will be in this category when the Hall is full.

Largely for this reason, Vinson Hall is not likely to become self-supporting in the foreseeable future. To provide financial help for these widows and to cover other deficits, the Navy-Marine-Coast Guard Residence Foundation, which exists entirely on corporate and private gifts, has established three repositories for contributions.

- ▶ A General Operating Fund which finances the Foundation office and Vinson Hall operating deficits;
- ▶ An Infirmary Fund which provides extras for the infirmary and, hopefully, will some day be expanded to finance development of on-site extended care;
- ▶ The Endowment Fund, an invested fund, the income from which is restricted to providing assistance to individual widows to meet all or part of the entry fees and monthly service charges.

The original concept was that the Endowment Fund should have a goal of $2,000,000 and that this amount could be raised by private subscription. Now we know that this goal was too low and that an endowment of at least $5,000,000 will be necessary to provide the income required to help the widows and make up operating deficits. Further, only a little more than $800,000 of the planned $2,000,000 has actually been raised. As a result the Foundation Trustees have been forced to spend capital in order to meet operating costs. The present operating deficit is about $22,000 per month, and this is why Vinson Hall desperately needs our help now. The Hall's financial position is extremely precarious and something

Sailor Hurt In Explosion Tells Parents Not To Worry

By ROBERT PETERSON
Register Staff Reporter

MILFORD — The first words PO 3.C. Michael Soule said to his parents from a hospital bed in Newport, R.I., was not to worry, that he would pull through.

Soule, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Soule, 17 Elaine Road, was one of eight crewmen aboard the destroyer USS Basilone injured in a boiler explosion. Three sailors were killed in the mishap that occurred while the ship was cruising in the Navy's Narragansett Bay Operating Area.

His father, Matthew Soule, said Tuesday at his home that the burns were confined to the hands, head and neck. Doctors at the Naval hospital in Newport, the elder Soule said, listed his son's injuries as being in the critical stage, but that a recovery is expected within two weeks.

Although in shock and not talkative Tuesday when he arrived at the hospital, Soule, his father said, later talked with family members, including his mother, and his wife, Barbara Brewster Soule, but would not discuss the incident at sea. Soule's mother and wife remained overnight near the hospital. The young sailor's duties aboard ship are to operate and maintain Diesel engines.

Soule is a graduate of Point Beach School and attended Milford High School before entering the Navy in January 1970. After attending school at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center in Illinois, he was assigned to the Basilone, and recently completed an around-the-world cruise.

PLIMOTH PLANTATION

P.O. BOX 1620 • PLYMOUTH, MASSACHUSETTS 02360 • 746-1622

February 16, 1973

To Members and Friends of Plimoth Plantation:

Weekly for the past four weeks I have been intending to write this promised follow-up report on the fire recovery program. The reason for delay has not been that progress has been so slow, but that it has been so fast. At each stage, some important further development has loomed just ahead causing me successively to wait "a few more days." Now developments regarding an insurance settlement have peaked rather rapidly in a most satisfactory offer by the company, and, since many of you expressed particular interest in the insurance situation, this seems the time to report.

For those of you who have time only for a quick summation, in one sentence it is this:

The rebuilding plans are complete, the work is well along on schedule for an April 1 opening of the Reception Area and by May 1 for the Sales and Food Areas and the insurance settlement plus "Fire Fund" contributions will nearly meet our full recovery costs.

Following my December 12 letter telling you of the fire, the Board of Governors met that same night to institute the preliminaries of a recovery program.

They reviewed and approved staff action:

1. to secure the remains of the building as much as possible from entry by weather or unauthorized persons;
2. to rent temporary off site storage and move into it for safe keeping all articles in the building that could be moved.

A next meeting of the Board was scheduled December 26th to consider further action.

During the ensuing two weeks, the program as set out above was accomplished except for a scattering of items relating to insurance which required another two weeks to assemble fully.

As a first step, the staff proposed that the present building be made completely weathertight on a temporary basis while work on limited portions of it be undertaken for spring use. At this point, the professional background as architect and planner of Board member Andrew Anderson-Bell stood the Plantation in great good stead.

As of this date, February 16, the work is meeting all schedules. The re-roofing of both the Reception Area and the floor-turned-roof were completed on February 3, the appointed day. A great deal of the basic carpentry, wiring and plumbing has been done, the most notable change being the walling in at basement level of the areas under the overhang of the original building to create the new Sales Shop.

Messrs. Dudley and Kellar have been extremely knowledgeable and ingenious in finding ways to cut construction costs below the original bid and we have been able to add highly desirable improvements such as air conditioning, a sprinkler system and carpeted surfaces for the Reception Area and Sales Shop with an increase of only $3000 in the original project cost.

Now to the insurance and general financial aspects of the situation. In addition to the tabulated summary below, I should like to express special thanks to our agent, Mr. Orfeo Sgarzi of the Cape Insurance Agency whose "good offices" have been most helpful in reaching a settlement which we consider completely satisfactory.

Costs		Replacement Funds
Restored Building	$193,000	Insurance settlement	$213,753
Building contents destroyed	45,600	"Fire Fund" gifts	20,809
Artifacts destroyed	2,517
Total	$241,117		$234,562

Through insurance premium savings, the sprinkler system that is being added to the building will make up the above difference between Costs and Replacement Funds in four years.

In summary, it may be said that the patient is not only ambulatory and taking nourishment, but for all practical purposes is on the way to a complete recovery.

The length of this communique suggests that I not try to detail at this point progress on other projects, but two are of such importance that I want to mention the highlights. We are in the process of forming an Advisory Committee of Indian scholars and have moved forward considerably toward a greatly improved and enlarged Indian Camp in 1973. In another effort, the Membership House exterior and one interior space have been restored and painted with very handsome results all around. We are seeking additional funds for both these projects and I should be happy to send along a more detailed report for those who feel they might be interested.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Crismore:

AN OPEN LETTER TO AMATEUR GENEALOGIST: OR THE QUEST FOR THE HISTORICAL (AND POSSIBLY ARMIGEROUS) GEORGE¹ SOULE. by DR. GEORGE ALAN¹¹ SOULE*

When I was very young, my father, George¹⁰ Soule began telling me about our Mayflower namesake. And even before I could read, I would leaf through the family Ridlon looking at pictures--Joshua Soule and Ezekiel Soule, flowing beards, dilapidated ancestral homes. But George¹ was the chief object of our speculation. My father and I found the grave of one of his sons at Duxbury. But what interests me to this day is where he came from in England. Was he a Londoner? Was he a farm boy who signed on at Plymouth? Why did he even go?

Several years ago, when I was living for a year in north London, George S. Soule (of Soule Kindred fame) kept up a spirited correspondence with me. As a result, I had two adventures my Soule cousins may like to hear about.

I guess that all of us from time to time get offers to supply coats of arms at a modest fee--hand colored and framed extra. But are we really entitled to arms (despite the advertisements and those colored plates in Ridlon)? Are we Soules, in fact armigerous? It comes down to this: either George¹ was or was not entitled to arms. If he wasn't, all those plaques on our walls are simply decorations. (Editor's note: See Soule Newsletter Vol. II, no. 2, pages 55-66 for article on SOULE HERALDRY. Other heraldry articles in Soule Newsletters Vol. III, No. 4, page 200; Vol. IV, No. 1, page 41; & Vol. VII, No. 1, page 14.)

The place to begin our research is The College of Arms, an institution located on Queen Victoria Street in Central London, almost in the shadow of St. Paul's. The building dates from the seventeenth century and reeks of decayed and soiled grandeur. My first impression was that I had stumbled into an institution straight from the pages of Charles Dickens--an institution which moves slowly if at all, one in which one's case is never quite concluded. But let my letters tell the story (I had been told that Thayer Soule had perhaps had genealogical work on file at the College). Editor's note: A beautiful plaque with a Soule coat-of-arms on it that Thayer Soule had bought in England was displayed at a Soule Reunion (see Soule Newsletter, Vol. III, no. 4, page 201). Thayer later told me that this was not obtained at the official College of Arms, but was bought at a Heraldry Store, similar to those in Boston and elsewhere which are simply selling art objects.

Quote from letter to George Soule written January 15, 1970 from London: "I hope to get around to the visit in a week or two. I doubt if we can get anything cut-rate from any institution like the College of Arms, but at least I can find out what we can get for what price. I can report now that there are two "Soule's" and two "Sowle's" in the London telephone directory. That doesn't include me."

(Soule Kindred had previously written to the College of Arms and their reply letter said in brief: "send us fifty dollars and we will examine your case." Soule Kindred then asked Dr. George Alan Soule to pay the College of Arms a personal visit.)

Quote February 9, 1970- "Well, I have been to the College of Arms, which is a rather crumbly old place. And though I didn't speak with Mr. Cole, I did talk with his secretary. It turns out that you have no alternative but to pay the fifty dollars. That is the minimum fee--without it they won't open their mouths. If it turns out that the work done on Thayer Soule's arms is sufficient--and I can't see why it wouldn't be, that will be all you will have to pay. If more work is necessary, it will cost more money--the lady I talked to suggested fifty or 100 dollars is often the bill. But I can't see that this will happen.

"I hope that this is the sort of information you wanted. In a nutshell, they won't whisper a word without the fifty dollars, but I'd guess you wouldn't have to spend much more than that.

"I enjoyed the outing. Climbed to the top of St. Paul's just afterwards, and found a fine old pub right around the corner from the College of Arms."

Quote February 19, 1970- "As far as what kind of work they (The College of Arms) do, it certainly LOOKED like the authentic kind of place to me. The secretary I talked to was quick to point out that they only did authentic work. Whether or not they could really find out our George's parents, I have no idea. Wouldn't you think they would have had to do so if they granted Thayer Soule his arms? I think your best course is to see his documents and judge for yourself. Then you can see whether you think 50 dollars is justified. Or write Mr. Cole again telling him all this. But I did get the distinct impression that 50 dollars is necessary before they will do anything.

"By the way, I looked up Sole in a dictionary of English surnames, and it meant "pond" in an old dialect, Kentish, I think. So perhaps we're not Norman or Basque but native English,- John a Soule - John by the Pond. Whether or not Soule is a variant spelling of Sole, I don't know, but I think I know how to find out if you are interested." (Editor's note: Subsequently to the above, George S. Soule donated $50.00 to the cause - whatever cause that be - and asked Dr. George Alan Soule to personally deliver the check.)

Quote March 26, 1970- "Well, I did my duty, and found it rather exhilarating. Made an appointment with A. Colin Coles at the College of Arms and saw him this morning. He was not what I had pictured, an ancient antiquary buried in musty tower, but a very affable man of perhaps 40 - 45 years of age. The whole atmosphere is unintentionally intimidating, in a dour, crumbly sort of way. I gave him your letter and the newspaper clipping you sent me and he said he would begin on the preliminary survey. He found right off the arms of Robert Sole in London in the early 17th century - Robert had come from Worcestershire, so some of our information may be right. (Robert's arms looked like no others I've seen in Soule literature. My guess is that all those things with fish - i.e. Dover soles - are late examples of false entomology.) I explained exactly what we wanted. Who was our George¹? What was his family? Did they have authorized arms? Frankly, to me the arms business is secondary, but the genealogical side is fascinating."

Despite our hopes, the Herald at the College of Arms produced very little. As far as he could tell, we Soules are NOT armigerous (unless George¹ turns out to be a long lost and unrecorded son of Robert of London). Editor's note: SOULE KINDRED did receive an official reply from the College of Arms of a sort. They will grant us an officially registered Coat-of-Arms for $750.00 (that's right, sevenhundred-fifty dollars.) and this was before the dollar was de-valued! Our efforts were reported at the next Soule Reunion, but since no one came forward to donate $750 to this cause, the project of obtaining an official registered Coat-of-Arms for Soule Kindred was placed on "hold" indefinitely where it stands to this day. We still DO NOT know for sure if the College of Arms does have something on Pilgrim George Soule's ancestry or if they are just "selling" us a Coat-of-Arms. In the meantime, many of our cousins have copied the lovely coats of arms that are to be seen in the Ridlon genealogy of the Soule family.

But a second adventure lay ahead. George (of the Soule Kindred) wrote again to say that a recent publication had unearthed a George Soule born in Tingrith, Bedfordshire, in the 1590's. Could this be our George? Again, let my letter tell the story.

Quote June 1, 1970 - "Blood is thicker than water. The question is whose blood? I have not been idle. Got A. Colin Cole's letter and was dismayed. He really didn't find anything of much value for your \$50.00. I should think anyone would be silly to fork out \$750.00 for a new coat of arms. Anyway, I went out today in search of our elusive George¹ Soule. Tingrith is easy to find. Drove up the MI left at Exit 12. Turned right, not left, even though the town is on the left of the Motorway. Followed signs to Woburn and Woburn Abbey. After a mile, a left turn. After another $\frac{1}{2}$ -mile another left turn and then under the MI and there was the town. A wee small village - no stores, some very old houses, some spanking new and expensive ones. One pub "The Swan". Parked by the church and looked at it. Small, charming, no Soules that I could see in the graveyard. Nobody about, walked through the village (about 20 houses). Met a man who informed me that it was the birth place of Gary Cooper. (Could this be true?) He took me to a nice lady who lived in the building in which Gary Cooper supposedly went to school. She told me that the old parish records were in the County Hall, Bedford (Bedfordshire.) Said a sad goodbye to the charming Tingrith and drove to Bedford. Found the Hall, the Library and the Archivist. All sorts of records. Your records of the family of William Soule are correct except their transcription of the register has George Soule born in 1594 not 1595. Other Soule (Sole - Soale) names abound. A John Sole fathered John (1596) and Henry (1603). Then another John (the 1596 one?) fathered four children (1632-47). A Margaret Soule married William Fensham in 1577. A Robert Springfield married Joan Soule in 1612. Remember that detail. Burials: Agnes, wife of Richard Sowle 1588. Richard 1593. Alice January 1, 1593 (Old style - remember - presumably the girl born December 23, 1593. Joan, daughter of William 1597. (So that Joan that got married is not William's daughter. William himself October 19, 1611. Mary Sole 1630. Then others later, but no George. Then they brought out William Sowle's WILL dated 4 July 1611. A girl helped me read the old handwriting. Much of it was totally uninteresting - stock phrases - but it turns out he was a "laborer" who owned a cottage and some land. He left all to his wife, Joane, who could easily be the woman who married in 1612!, for 21 years at which time all became the property of "his oldest son" William (clearly the one we already know about) who with her was co-executor. He also doled out in £ 1 a year batches. £ 5 each to his younger children. Katherine (first we have heard of her - probably older than William?), Mary; George and Constance, omitting Alice and Joan whom we know were dead. So, George was alive and presumably at home in 1611. Was he our George? One piece of evidence suggests, he was not. In the contiguous parish of Flintwich, then was born on February 28, 1614. George son of George Sole. Other children of this George followed: Dinesse 1618, John 1620, and an unnamed son December 14, 1623. So, if George of Flintwich was the George born in Tingrith in 1594 (producing a child when he was 20) he couldn't be our George, unless we want to say he deserted his wife and produced a child 3 years after he left England. His son George - at least another George produced a son Jason in 1647 and a George Sole, Jr. produces four children in the 1670's. The Soles continue to be heard of in Flintwick into the 18th century, though the name is not heard of again in Tingrith, aside from what I have told you, except for four children of John and Ann Soale born 1632 - 47 - this John (born 1596) probably being the son of the earlier John Sole. One little tidbit - Flintwick lists another marriage - Joan Soale in 1618 to Thomas Barnett. (The same Joan that married in 1612 after William's death? Sorry, didn't check to see if Springfield had died.) And the death of George Soale, February 6, 1629, who must have been the father of all the Flintwick Soales 1614 - 23, including the George who married Mary (somebody) and fathered Jason or James in 1647. At first glance then it doesn't look like the 1594 George is our man, though it is entirely possible he is and the Flintwick father is not the same person. More research is possible - old deeds, etc.

After all this, headed back to London. Had a lunch in a village that sounded like Armpit, and got back to MI. Then my car broke down and I cursed genealogy until it was clear that the trouble was minor. Back in London by 3:30. A very interesting day. Though mainly, I think, negative results.

As for the College of Arms - YUK. So again - nothing. Soon afterwards, my family and I returned to the States.

Remembering my wonderful day at Tingrith and Bedford - and congratulating myself that I had contributed (albeit negatively) to Soule lore--I paged through Ridlon. There on Pages 131 through 133 of Volume I, - was the Tingrith material.

I still think we may find out where George¹ came from. But next time I'll check Ridlon first. And I won't go near College of Arms.

Sincerely,

George Soule

Soule Kindred President's note:

by George Standish^(11 also) Soule

Soule Kindred was happy to be able to give Dr. George Alan¹¹ Soule, above, the splendid excuse to get away from the polluted air of London for a weekend outing!

If any of our other kindred members are planning a trip to England and would LIKE to do some sorely needed research in the Soule line, we would be glad to give some advice and guidance in advance. Perhaps even a planning meeting with our family historian, Col. John Soule can be arranged in Washington, D. C.

In Memory of John Arthur Soule

I want to share with you some remarkable experiences of John Soule. For this information, I am indebted to Alice Sanderman, Charles Wyman, and the wife, Myrtle Soule.

John Soule was a product of a pioneer family. The forebears of John Soule and Charles Wyman came to America on the same ship, the famous Mayflower. It is to families like these which America owes much gratitude today.

At one point in their westward migration, the Soule family established the most westerly Presbyterian Church at Caledonia, Missouri. They were staunch Irish Presbyterians who always stood up to pray and sat down to sing.

John's family kept on going west and came into Seattle when the city was on fire, June 6, 1889. John was two years old. The family moved on to Kent and settled there, where John lived for 50 years.

During his high school days when he was 17 years old, John contracted typhoid fever and from this time on suffered a visual handicap. But his Irish blood came to his support:

He graduated from University of Washington.

He studied law and became a member of the Wellett Olson Law firm

John became the Northwest representative of the Federal Trade Commission.

At one point in his career, he worked a claim for 14 months in the mountains of Montana. He had with him his supporting friend, Rex Roudebush, a Tacoma lawyer.

John served in the Washington State legislature from 1925 to 1929.

He was the attorney for City of Kent in 1916.

John Soule served his fellow man, honestly and ^{loyally} in public affairs, until his retirement in 1957.

John had a wide circle of friends and a devoted family. His first wife Annah passed away in April of 1964. In May of 1968, Myrtle Farrar and John were united in marriage and she survives him. They have spent their retirement years in California and Washington.

John was probably the oldest living past master of the Masonic lodge of Kent. We are pleased to have several members of that lodge with us today.

On March 28, 1937, John and Annah united with this University Presbyterian Church. In 1947, he became an elder on this church's session, serving his church until retirement at age 70.

The church of Jesus Christ, the political and social life of our community, have been sustained and made richer because John Soule lived. Thanks be to God for his life among us.

A SOWLE REUNION

About 1893 at the home of Joshua Sowle in Wells County, Indiana

5 March 1973

Dear Mary Crismore,

1606 West North Street
Springfield, Ohio 45504

Received your letter this morning. I'd be most happy to have you publish my query in Soule Newsletter. You have me descended from the wrong Isaac 7 Sowle. The direct lineage with spouses that I am enclosing will straighten that out. My Isaac 7 is not proven, although his brother Joseph Tripp Sowle who m Mary Brown has a number.

The reunion picture in the smaller size came rather dark, but I am sending it with identifications anyway, and you can use your own judgment as to whether it can be used. I had a much larger one made especially for Dove A. (Osborn) Snyder - front row- who lives RR#1, Monroe, Ind. She is past 91 years old (b 31 July 1881). As far as I know she is the only person in this picture who still lives.

Concerning obits enclosed - Loretta E. Sowle was b 19 Nov 1848 - not 1849. John Byron Ady (he used the name Byron) was b at Delta, Lucas (now Fulton) Co., Ohio - not Trumbull Co. as his obit says.

Hope I have managed to send something you can use. Perhaps some might sometime even help you as historian of Indiana Mayflower.

Most sincerely,

Ada E. Lewis

Editor's note: Mrs. Lewis sent many items such as Obituaries, WILL of Isaac Sowle, Estate settlement of Isaac Sowle and many items about his children in settlement of estate. See Querie on another page of this issue.

From Cousin Mildred Briggs (who is Mrs. Robert Briggs, Sr., 20 Oleander Street, West Springfield, Ma.01089) writes: "I find the Newsletter most interesting. Perhaps you'd be interested to know that for Memorial Day 1971 I placed on Jerome Bonaparte Soule's grave a small marker of Chester granite. He was my great-grandfather, son of Alden and Nancy(Deforest) Soule. It gave me a great deal of satisfaction to mark his unmarked grave after many years. There is a lot of that family in that small West Becket Cemetery, including Dr. Alden Soule..... I feel it an honor to preserve and enhance in any way the Soule Kindred in memory of our ancestor."

QUERIES and ANSWERS:

Mrs. Mildred Briggs, 20 Oleander St., West Springfield, Ma. 01089:- "I am still stalled at the Alden Soule generation. If you know of any information or source of same, I would be most grateful."

Mrs. Wava Tryon Schwartz (sent to our Sec. but no address given for this item):- "I have been unable to locate a listing of the children of Sylvanus³ Sowle, born 1684. I should be most happy to have a family sheet on him, as I do have for the rest of the family from George down."

Mrs. Francis G. Soule, Jr., Andover, Massachusetts:- "One question we have pertains to the order of descent in my husband's lineage. Soule Kindred listed a John for the 5th generation. The research left by my father-in-law does not include him and I have not been able to figure out this missing link between Deacon Ezekial⁴ and Amasa⁶. Can anyone clarify this for me? As had been suggested by the Kindred, all our family information was sent in, and at the time I also had given up trying to find records about my husband's grandfather, William St. John Soule, and his family. Perhaps something is forthcoming."

Mrs. Ada E. Lewis, 1606 West North St., Springfield, Ohio 45504:- See other reunion and articles in this issue - "Need lineage of Hepzibah Allen" My lineage follows:

Isaac⁶ Sowle/Soule (Joseph⁵; William⁴; Sylvanus³; Nathaniel²; George¹) was born 1775 Tiverton, RI; removed to Fulton Co., NY; married (when? where?) to Hepzibah ALLEN born 1772 RI. They moved to Trumbull Co, Ohio in 1830s where both died. 11 known children.

Would appreciate hearing from anyone who has Soule-ALLEN connection as my Isaac⁶ and Hepzibah had 2 daughters who married ALLEN men; and Isaac⁶ had 2 brothers who married ALLEN women.

Raymond Shepley of 212 Dyer Road, West Palm Beach, Florida 33405 writes as follows: I am hoping someone may be able to help me prove one generation of my line which would take me back to Mayflower passenger, George Soule. I have other lineages but desire "SOULE" also.

From the Mayflower Index the following lineage is proven:

31852	George Soule of the Mayflower	p684
32001	Patience Soule m John Haskell	p687
16864	Mary Haskell m Scottoway Clark	p362
7669	Scottoway Clark m Thankful Crosby	p165

From Harwich, MA, Vital Records:

Andrew Clark (brother of Scottoway) m 20 Aug 1729, Bethia Hall

David Clark, b 3 Apr 1732, m 16 Sep 1756, Thankful Cole

David Clark, b abt 1757, m (int) 6 Feb 1779, Mehitable Weekes

George Clark, b 4 Mar 1779, m 18 Mar 1801, Reliance Young

Mehitable Clark, b 1 Oct 1808, m 10 Jun 1828, George Washington Small

Hattie Clark Small, b. Brewster 6 Apr 1851, m 12 Jan 1869, Joseph T.

Shepley, my grandfather, at Groton, MA

Thus far, I have not been able to prove that David Clark, b 1732 was father of David Clark, b 1757. The Harwich Vital Records show only the birth of one child, Andrew, born 20 Aug 1765, but there was ample time between 1756 and that date for several older children. I have studied the Mayflower Descendant volumes and have found nothing to prove this.

Harold Owen, R.F.D. #6, Midland, Mich, 48640 writes: "My grandfather Newton Soule (Soule) descended from George Soule of the Mayflower. His wife, my grandmother, was Martha Price, I was told by my parents. Her father and a brother fought in the Civil War. Her gravestone reads "Mattie Soule, Mother". No date and the sexton had no record. On her marriage to Newton, she was Martha Kelly born 1842, married in 1866. 1880 census ~~shows~~ she had one child, Lilly born about 1865 to Mr. Kelly, living with Newton and her and all their children. Martha's birthplace was listed as Ohio. When and where was she born and when and where did she die? Who were her parents? Newton and Martha (Price) (Kelly) Soule were married 1866 in Branch County, Michigan. Please furnish any information further "

Mrs. Alger Johnson (Roberta H. Smith) 1120 Grant St., Evanston, Illinois, 60201:-
"We have worked on the Soule genealogy on my grandmother's side back as far as 1815, and have struck a blank. Things in reverse are as follows:

Roberta H. Smith, born June 9, 1923 - daughter of Adelaide E. (Scott) Smith, born February 13, 1899, Lowell, Massachusetts and Robert A. Smith, born July 4, 1898, Lowell, Mass. (Adelaide daug. of-Della (Delphine Helen SOULE, born June 10, 1877, Lowell, Mass. and Samuel Scott, born February 5, 1868, Calbank, Scotland (Della daug. of-

William Oren Soule, born October 29, 1845, Troy, Maine and Elizabeth Marble Brock, born Dec. 22, 1845, West Barnet, Vt. (He son of-

Reuben Soule, born 1817 (?), location unknown - resided Troy, Maine (1850 census)
Mary A. Beard, born (?)

William Oren Soule had a brother Elbredge (Elbridge) A. Soule. Last minute find:-
Reuben Soule's second son, Elbridge (Elbrege) apparently went by his middle name, Asbray. (That taken from the 1860 census.) According to the census, it appears that the two boys, William Orin and Elbridge Asbury were living with Uncle Elbridge. The father was probably Elbridge or Moses Soule as these names were common names of this clan. Brother Elbridge was living with Reuben. Elbridge was born 1815. He could have married Sarah Ross (intentions) both of Troy, Sept. 6, 1862.

This is as far as we are able to find. Anyone that may help? Anxious to hear."

Sir:

One of our Soule Kindred "mustang" members, Mrs. Adelia Rosasco Soule, herself a writer, flagged a non-researched error in your paper. I enclose copies of pages 145, V.5 no.3, and 182, V.4 no.4 of the Soule Newsletter to elaborate. Actually the Mansfield (Ohio) News-Journal paragraph is an old newspaper slug that has been used many times by many papers. Your staff man that boxed in "Greeley's" advice should have recognized that.

Many Soules did take Editor John Babson Lane Soule's advice and go West - witness Soule Steel company in San Francisco still in the family - and many also went South - witness Soule College in New Orleans still in the family and (former) Mayor Charles Soule of Pensacola, Florida.

We of Soule Kindred did find young Arthur Greeley's trip interesting however and wish him the best for his future endeavors. He might even like a young descendant of John Babson Lane Soule to ride along on his next trip and who knows, they might really get to New Orleans!

Yours truly,

George Soule, President,
Soule Kindred in America, Inc.

PS: One of our officers lives not too far from Arthur Greeley and Arthur might like to meet him. His name: Ben George Soule, 5820 Logan Ave. So., Minneapolis, Minn. 55419 Cousin Clyde Soule, 84 Alma St., North, Guelph, Ontario, Canada send a part of a letter from:- Bessie Soules Owen (Mrs. Richard Owen) 2682 Bloor Street West, Toronto 590, Ontario, Canada.

"While I only became a member of Soule Kindred last year, I joined the Society of Mayflower Decendents in 1955 and have been most interested in the Soule family history over a long period of time. I have visited Plymouth and Plimouth Plantation and Duxbury many times as well as Plymouth, England.

I am of the tenth generation in direct line from our ancestor George Soule, who was a passenger on the Mayflower.

Here is a brief sketch of our line:

- 1.- George Soule - the Pilgrim.
- 2.- George Jr. - born in Dartmouth 1639
- 3.- William - born in Dartmouth 1670
- 4.- George - also born in Dartmouth in 1695 - married Lydia Howland a decendant of pilgrim John Howland In 1740 they moved to Duchessa Co., N. Y.; established a home at 'Nine Partners', Now Amania - died 1784
- 5.-Daniel - born in Dartmouth - moved to 'Nine Partners' in 1740. He remained true to the crown and after peace, became a United Empire Loyalist. When vistory turned against the British, he and his sons moved to Nova Scotia in 1783 and settled in Digby.
This gentleman was my great, great, great Grandfather, and he added an "S" to the name Soule.
- 6.- Daniel Jr. - born in 'Nine Partners' in 1760 moved to Digby. I have copies of his petitions for land grants from the Archives in Ottawa.
After residing in Nova Scotia for some years, he and his family moved to Thornhill, Ontario in 1795 and lived there until his death in 1846 and was buried in a plot of his own land.

Through him, I became a member of the Governor Simcoe Branch, United Empire Loyalist.

7. - Thomas, son of above born, in Digby in 1791 - married the daughter of a soldier of the American Revolution and her descendants being eligible for membership in the D.A.R., I joined this organization.
These my great grandparents lived at Queensville, Ontario.
8. - Peter, son of the above, married Phoebe Moore in St. James Cathedral, Toronto in 1849.
They lived north of Aurora, Ontario.
9. - Their son Robert, my father, was born in 1855 and married Mary Louise Rose and lived in Newmarket, Ontario until his death in 1900.
10. - So I, Bessie Soules Owen, am of the tenth generation, and my only daughter, Margaret, of the eleventh.

I was fortunate to procure the two volumes on Soule History by G.T. Ridlon, which no doubt you have seen. My brother who now lives in West Germany now has them.

My own research has been rewarding and I am still seeking anything that will be of family interest."

An answer: From Cousin "Jan" Green - "I noticed in the October issue of the Soule Newsletter that in the family group chart of Jacob Sowl and wife Meribah Lewis, the information on Eliphalet Frazee and Mercy (Massah) Sowle was not complete. As I have the Bible record on this couple perhaps you would print it in the Historical Gleanings as an aid to our Kindred who are tracing this line."

He never brought his family on account of the prevailing "fever and ague". He went back near Oneida. Died at Durhamville, Oneida Co., N.Y. and is buried there, as is his wife.

Eliphalet lived to be 90 years and 9 days old and remembered the Revolutionary war. The following story is told about him - "During the Revolutionary war, when he was about nine years old, the British army was in camp near Perth Amboy, and confiscated all the cattle in that section, including the only cow his mother had. He walked several miles to the British camp and demanded the return of the cow. The commander, hearing his story, told the officers: "Give the boy his cow". He drove it home." His father was killed in that war.

"Eliphalet Frazee, grandfather of Eliphalet Z.Frazee, the present tobacco dealer, became a settler prior to 1811 on the west side of the river at New Bridge (Belgium). He came from Schoharie county, whither he returned for his family and stock; but on his way to his new home he stopped at Oneida Castle, where he met a Dr.Carson, who had practiced along the Seneca River, and he advised Mr.Frazee to not bring his family here. He accordingly rented a farm, and stopped where he was for a period, but came later."

Blenheim is a town (township) in Schoharie Co., N.Y.

Durhamville & Verona are in Oneida Co., also Camden and Floyd, the latter a hamlet getting its mail from Stittville.

One of Orrin E.Frazee's notes says:

It seems probable that Benoni Frazee, the Revolutionary ancestor, who is the fourth generation from Orrin Edward Frazee, was a son of Edward Frazee whose will of July 11, 1774 mentions wife Catherine, sons Benoni, Jonathan, James, Richard, George. daughters, Polly, Catherine, Rebecca, Brothers George and James named as executors.

If the above can be established then it seems probable that Benoni's grandfather was Joseph Frazee whose will of Jan. 8, 1714 (probated Feb. 12, 1715) of Elizabethtown, names wife Mary; sons Edward, Eliphalet, Samuel, John, Elisha, Joseph, and Isaac's daughters but not named.

Donald S. Sharp, Toledo, Ohio, in a letter dated Jan. 16, 1950 says -

The old Bible of Eliphalet and Mercy Frazee shows that the former died on February 1, 1862. The couple were married at Blenheim February 28, 1795 by Elder Amos Clark.

He also said the O.E. Frazee, above, probably was formerly head of the Lacrosse Normal School in Wisconsin.

All records I copied exactly as shown. Though not complete, they may provide clues for some of our Soule Cousins who have New York "Soules".

She has the following QUERY:-

LOST - a Soule (3rd great) grandfather: Perry Soule - born Rhode Island about 1780, his father was Joseph Soule, mother was Abigail (Wilber, possibly). This family lived 1790 to 1800 in Herkimer County, Town of Frankfort. Perry had brothers Lemuel and Gideon, and sisters Elsy Soule (Corey) and Polly Soule who married John Redman. In 1810, these families lived Anondaga Co., Town of Camillus. In 1820, Perry Soule was living in Town of Brutus, Cayuga County, with wife Mary Boon.

Only known child was Margaret Soule who married Joseph Cobb in 1821. At this point Perry and his wife became, "lost Soules".

Cayuga County records show he sold his property here in 1820. Where did he go from here? Would like his death date and place of burial.

Mrs. Ruth Agnes H. Bubul, 1111 West McClain Ave., Scottsburg, Indiana 47170:-

She has a lineage from George Soule partially worked out and wants some data to prove some items she is not sure about. She has this lineage:

George Soule of the Mayflower - had son
 Nathaniel Soule married Rose Thorn
 Sarah Soule " John Wheaton (need proof)
 Elizabeth Wheaton " Elisha Chace (Chase)
 Phoebe Chace " Nathaniel Wood (Correct?)
 Jonathan Wood " Eunice Thurston (2nd wife)
 Hiram Wood " Priscilla Hugaboom
 Frank Christopher Wood - Agnes Melissa Humphrey
 Minnie Belle Wood - Earl Leroy Hayward
 Ruth Agnes Hayward - John Lawrence Bubul

Someone has a different view of Phoebe Chace and Nathaniel Wood and this need to be cleared for her. Anything new and not in Mayflower Index will be appreciated.
