Editor's Corner:

Now that this issue is on the way, my thoughts will turn next to our Reunion.

The Reservation Cards and a letter of instructions and ideas will be coming soon. We hope you have already started making plans for your vacation the last of June with Indianapolis, Indiana, serving as your guiding line for a grand reunion.

If you can make this your stopping off place for the whole vacation, there are many beautiful spots all over Indiana. There are many Historical sites to see and enjoy.

We plan to tour some the city and see some of the highlight places, of which Indianapolis is most famous.

The RILEY TRAIL tour has 73 marked places to see. I doubt we can see them all in so short a time but will make an effort to see the most deserving ones.

Do you want to ride a bus around the "500 mile Race Track", see some the oldest race cars in history, or maybe drive your own car around the track? We will see what we can do about that.

Remember Terre Haute is one the first settlements of some the Soule families!! Hope to bring something of interest to you about their Pioneer Days.

Our Youth group should come prepared to have fun, enter the "Stamp Contest", make a SOULE flag or banner to identify their group, and get acquainted. Bring a school picture or pictures to swap or have published in a later Newsletter Issue.

Our evening dinner will be Saturday with all meeting in the "Le Petit Falais" room reserved for our dinner and meeting afterwards. This will be at the Atkinson Hotel here in downtown Indianapolis.

What more can I say now, only, COME!!

PREVIEW of Some Places we'll see in Indianapolis, Indiana, June 28, 29 and 30... BRIEF FACTS ABOUT INDIANAPOLIS -

HISTORY

In 1820 George Pogue brought his wife and two children to settle at the junction of Fall Creek and White River. At the time, Delaware Indians still controlled the area and the Pogue's family cabin was in the midst of the wilderness. Yet within a year the little settlement which began to grow there was selected to be the State's capital. It was called Indianapolis - "Indiana" plus "polis", the Greek word meaning "city"...............

BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

Indianapolis is one of the nation's leading industrial complexes. There about 1,100 manufacturing firms in Indianapolis and Marion County who produce more than 1,200 products and employ over 7,500 scientist, engineers and technicians...... Indianapolis still is growing......

EDUCATION

The public and private schools of Indianapolis offer programs from kindergarten to adult education. Indiana is the home of several colleges, Furdue, Ball State and Indiana State and Indiana University/Purdue University are among the most noted......

CULTURE

Indianapolis is the center for the state's cultural activities. It has Clowes Memorial Hall and the Jordan School of Music at Butler University. There is also The Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra headquartered at Clowes Hall. There are The Indianapolis Museum of Art, The Indianapolis Zoo, Children's Museum and other noted buildings of art.

RECREATION

The Indianapolis Motor Speedway and Museum, Indiana State Fairgrounds, Indianapolis Indians Baseball Club, Indiana Pacers Basketball Team, Hobby Shows, Ice Shows and many more too numerous to mention.

POPULATION

The eight-county Indianapolis area had a population count of 1,111,173 in 1970. SONS OF INDIANA

The year 1827 gave us: Lewis Wallace, born in Brookville, Indiana. "BEN-HUR"

The year 1849 gave us James Whitcomb Riley, born in Greenfield, Ind. "Beloved Foet"

The year 1854 gave us Thomas Riley Marshall, born North Manchester, Ind. "Vice-Fres."

The year 1857 gave us Paul Dresser, born Terre Haute, Ind. "On the banks of the wabash"

The year 1863 gave us Gene Strotton-Porter, born Hopewell, Ind. "A Girl of the Limberlast"

The year 1867 gave us Wilbur Wright, born near Millville, Ind. "Wright Bros. Flying"

The year 1899 gave us Hoagy Carmichael, born Bloomington, Ind. "Stardust"

The year 1900 gave us Ernie Pyle, born near Dana, Ind. "World War II war correspondent"

The year 1913 gave us Richard Bernard Skelton, born Vincennes, Ind. "Red Skelton clown"

As years roll by many other famous Hoosiers are made famous for their works, plays and numerous other "first's for Indiana".

Let us not forget our own "Dear" Soules who came here and took roots in Indiana and made us proud to be A SOULE KINDRED.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

With this April issue, we appear to be drawing to the end of another fiscal year. I cannot say that we have made progress but neither have we lost ground. I have had many interesting inquiries from different members so that I know that there is general interest in the association by its members.

I am disappointed that coming into the office of President without more knowledge of the inner workings of our association that my track record is nothing to brag about.

We are slowly but surely completing the transition of consolidation of the Texas and Massachusetts corporation which has been completed subject to our final reports and official acknowledgment of dissolution of the Texas corporation so that we have no more taxes due that State. We are negotiating with the Internal Revenue Service as to the documentation which they require to bring their records in line with what has taken place.

The idea of regional meetings has shown some interest but has not as yet caught on and I think the idea should be pursued further.

I am hoping that the "pen pal" program for the younger people will be successful.

We are in the middle of working out the idea of a Soule stamp which was suggested by Grant Soule. As soon as the design is finalized, we will then attempt to determine the cost.

I look forward to seeing all those who can arrange to make it to come to Indianapolis in June and I trust that we will have another successful annual meeting.

With best regards to everyone, I remain. Kenneth C. Tiffin

NEW YOUTH EDITOR - - - (A note of introduction)

Hi! This is your new youth editor, Carol Cislak. I am a junior in High School and currently active in volunteering at the St. Vincent's Hospital and our Church Group.

I hope to hear from some of the youths of SOULE Kindred through our Pen Pal program. If you are interested in having a pen pal please write me.

If anyone has some interesting puzzles or riddles that may interest others please send them to me.

I am looking forward to seeing everyone at the June Reunion. We are planning some special youth activities. So, talk your parents into coming.

OTHER SHORT NOTES SENT WITH NEWSLETTER DUES -

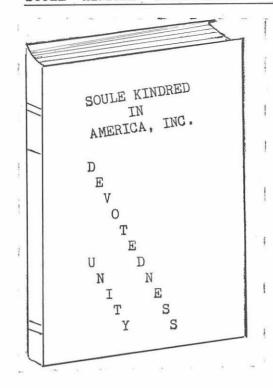

Carl L. Soule, 126 W. Olive St., Corona, California 91720 writes: "Would love to attend one of the conventions but guess our traveling days are over. Had a quite severe cerebral hemmorage this past summer but am making an excellant recovery. I appreciate the Newsletter."

Howard M. Soule, 338 West Cinnabar Ave., Phoenix, Arizona 85021 writes: "I was honored to be installed as president of Phi Delta Kappa, an international organization of educators, on October 21, 1973 in Houston, Texas. We recently (Dec. 2, 1973) returned from an educational seminar to the Soviet Union and Helsinki, Finland. The seminar was sponsored by Phi Delta Kappa. Our headquarters building is in Bloomington, Indiana."

Mynoa Richardson Anderson, 213 South Pioneer St., Mess, Arizona 85204 writes: "In my 84 years my children keep me completely. We are proud of our heritage."

NEWS NOTES sent by Shirley Soule Smith:

"I really enjoyed and appreciated the letter and note that you sent me last August. When the Newsletter arrived I was delighted to see the pictures. I would have liked to have been there with you all but it was just impossible. (About the Reunion in Texas). I'm teaching at home Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and do "color separations" for Kay Dee Handprint, Inc. (dish towels) through my next door neighbor who is an artist. Also do lamp shade decorating (on china shades) for a lamp shop. Clint and I spent a week up in Nova Scotia in September. We revisited the beautiful Cabot Trail, as well as taking the Bluenose Ferry from Bar Harbor, Me. to Yarmouth, N.S. I enjoy reading the items of news in the Newsletter and wish more people would send in their own bits of news from everywhere about our Soule Kindred." Signed Hazel (Sowle) Smith.

TWO SAMPLES OF SOULE STAMPS

Remember we are to have some stamp ideas to present at the REUNION this spring, June 28, 29, 30

This stamp idea was started by Grant W. Soule. Let's keep it in mind, bring your ideas with you.

(Editor's note: I like the idea found in an old history book, that - He was more than a servant possibly a teacher for the young children.)

COMMENTS from: Grant W. Soule (Our stamp sponsor)

"Relative to the SOULE NEWSLETTER, it was a wonderful January issue."

"You have certainly hit the right key in emphasing YOUTH. It (the youth movement) furnished the best hope for a future in the life of our Soule Newsletter. More power to you, I shall not despair of the future, if you boom the youth in our cause."

(Editor's note: It couldn't have been said better for our youth of tomorrow and do note too, there is a whole page devoted to youth and our new Youth Editor. Please help her to make a success in her earnest efforts.)

SOULE - DEVOL

From: Mrs. L. F. Brown, 3306 Huron, Kalamazoo, Mich. 49007. She writes:

In reading an ad in the Genealogical Helper she will respond that her family line has been traced back to George Soule of the Mayflower. Her father traced the line through George's daughter Mary who married Joseph Davol. The research was published in a booklet of 106 pages, paper cover and can be obtained through her for $4.95 postpaid.

(Editor's note: She sent me a book for my library of books and if your lineage connects with the Devol and allied families of CUDDINGTON, BOYD & BROWN you should get a copy. Since I have the book I may be able to answer a few queries, and let you know if your lineage connects.)

In this issue will be found some pages of Old Bible Records that were sent to me by Col. John Soule. This is a nice way to preserve the Births, Deaths and Marriages. We could use some in each issue if they connect to our ancester, George Soule of the Mayflower.

Who is Col. John Soule? ... He is our Historian, a leader and one who responds to our needs. Like supplying us something for our Newsletter each time, (see this issue for many goodies) helping promote the Lucy Mary Kellogg Memorial Fund (of which he gave a considerable sum) and keeping your Soule Newsletter first in mind and heart for keeping us united into such a fine group.

Progress Report - Five Generation Project

By Colonel John Soule - SOULE FAMILY HISTORIAN and Member of the Five Generations Project Committee of the GENERAL SOCIETY OF MAYFLOWER DESCENDANTS

LUCY MARY KELLOGG

The General Society of Mayflower Descendants lost its beloved Editor of the Five Generations Project to cancer on 16 December 1973, after two weeks hospitalization. She had devoted the last three years of her life to the Society's monumental genealogical research program on Pilgrims and their descendants. Her work on Volume One will be completed and the publication date, when known, will be announced in The Mayflower Quarterly. Gifts in her memory may be sent to Five Generations Project, care of Box 4311, Station A, Portland ME 04101.

Pages 7 and 8 of our Vol. VIII (January 1974) quoted in part your Historian's report to the San Antonio Reunion. Brief mention was made of the death of Lucy Mary Kellogg, the Editor of the Project. More detailed information on this outstandingly great and dedicated genealogist and the tax exempt Memorial Fund established in her memory appear in this issue. We are advised that this fund is to be devoted to help defray the cost of research needed to complete the Five Generation Project.

We would like to take this opportunity to pay a personal tribute to Lucy Mary Kellogg. She spent many hours with your Historian devoting her driving energy to the critical review of the work accomplished on the Genealogy of the numerous descendants of George Soule of the Mayflower. A constructive criticism, capable guidance and helpful suggestions always resulted from these sessions. Above all, the highest standards of accuracy and authenticity she urged at every opportunity gave us invaluable new insight into our responsibility to the descendants of George Soule!

It was she who offered our hope for outside help on our difficult WEST branch. Unfortunately, her tragic death came before that materialized. On our only slightly less difficult WALKER branch, interim reports from Dr. Milton E. Terry and Stuart P. Lloyd, both of New Jersey, lead to optimism that commendable progress is being made with every reason to expect a final product of which we can all be proud. Again, it was Lucy Mary Kellogg who prevailed upon these competent genealogists to assume the completion of this "problem child". A typical early colonial migrafrom Plymouth County (Middleboro) to northern, then central New Jersey and then onward into Pennsylvania and Virginia!

Lucy Mary Kellogg spent the entire Fall of 1973 in a desperate effort to make Volume I of "MAYFLOWER FAMILIES THROUGH FIVE GENERATIONS" ready for the printers. She was a true perfectionist and, as she told at least half a dozen fascinated and sizeable audiences, expected and intended the new publication when finished could be "sworn by and not sworn at"! One of these talks was before an overflow crowd of the National Genealogical Society in Washington, D.C. on 6 Oct 1973. Before the meeting we discussed progress and problems on the SOULE Family research with her and were quite shocked at her obvious ill health. Despite her valient efforts, Volume I did not get to the printer. We learned from reliable sources that she had long been aware of her inoperable cancer. None-the-less, she had worked long hours until entering the Saint Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor, Michigan. The following day she went into a coma and died shortly thereafter. What dedication!

All of her invaluable completed Five Generation Project materials, including approved copies of our SOULE contributions have been inventoried and shipped to Plymouth. There in storage in the fire-safe vaults at the headquarters of the General Society of Mayflower Descendants, they await selection of a successor Editor. The Committee is aware this will be a most difficult and time consuming task, also that it must be done soonest to prevent the collapse of the whole project.

To bring our readers up to date, we are pleased to report that SOULE KINDRED President Kenneth C. Tiffin, recently back in Boston area from a long Florida winter vacation, is organizing a group to bring the HASKELL branch to completion. Other competent volunteers at work include General Donald H. Maguire in Maine and Howard A. Thomas on Dutchess County, New York. Your Historian still has hope of completing many other loose ends.

That WEST branch of Rhode Island remains an unsolved problem. We might better call it a complexity of many unsolved problems. Charles W. Farnham, F.A.S.G., C. G., the dean of Rhode Island professional genealogists, has expressed considerable pessimism regarding the possibility of ever reaching acceptable conclusions concerning these people. He has pointed out to us the poor condition of the records in that area as well as his findings in several previous futile attempts to establish any sort of acceptable WEST lineages. He is of the opinion that few members of this branch were citizens of substance - neither involved in many land transactions nor had sufficient resources to warrant leaving a will. There is no known evidence that they had family bibles nor public recordation of vital records. Neither has he been able in the past to find any trace of evidence of migration! For these reasons, and others, he declined our strong urgings to undertake completing of the genealogy of the WEST branch of the SOULE family.

Our WEST problems have also been discussed with Robert M. Sherman and his charming wife Ruth Wilder Sherman. Both are not only residents of Rhode Island but also members of the Five Generation Project Committee of the General Society of Mayflower Descendants and highly respected and competent genealogists. At the time of our latest discussions with them, both felt they both had far too many commitments to assume an additional task of this magnitude. However, they did agree to bear the problem in mind and keep a close lookout for clues which may come to their attention. In view of this, we are sending them a copy of our WEST notes to date.

In summation, there is far less optimism at this time for an early completion of the long developing FIVE GENERATION PROJECT.

Sincerely,

MEET YOUR FIVE GENERATIONS EDITOR*

Lucy Mary Kellogg was born in Janesville, Rock Co., Wisc., daughter of Marcus Samuel and Ellen Lucy (Moyle) Kellogg. She is a descendant of William Bradford. After two years of college work at Milton College, Milton, Wisc., she took her B.A. in American History at the University of Wisconsin, cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa. She is retired from work with General Motors Corp. in Janesville, Chicago, and Detroit.

She is mostly self-taught in the genealogical field, with one formal course, the Third Institute for Genealogical Research in Washington, D.C. in 1952. She has been State Historian of the Michigan Mayflower Desc. since 1965, Editor of the Detroit Society for Genealogical Research (DSGR) Magazine 1957-62, and in charge of the program for Special Publications of the DSGR since its inception. In 1960, the Society received an Award of Merit from the American Assoc. for State and Local History for "an outstanding publication and for a series of research aids by outstanding authorities" and two years later, the special publication received a Certificate of Commendation from the same organization.

Lucy Mary is a charter trustee of the Board for Certification of Genealogists, Washington, D.C., and carries Certificate No. 7. She has conducted numerous workshops for the Detroit Public Library, and spoken to workshops in Milwaukee, Dodge City (KS), Tulsa, Cleveland, and Syracuse (NY), as well as to numerous Michigan groups. She served on the staff of the 1965 and '66 Seminars of the New England Hist. Gen. Soc.

Her publications include a series in the DSGR Magazine "A Letter to Jenny Hunter"; "John Willoughby of Goshen, Ct." (DSGR Vols. 30 & 31); "A Guide to Ancestral Trails in Michigan", published in connection with the 1830 Federal Census: Territory of Michigan (1961) and "Death Records of Washtenaw Co., Mich. beginning 1867," (DSGR Vol. 33).

Miss Kellogg is a member of the following societies: Michigan Mayflower Descendants (elected Assistant General 1969); DSGR (Honorary Life Member); New England Historic Genealogical Soc. (Boston); National Genealogical Soc. (Washington, D.C.); Central N.Y. Genealogical Soc. (Syracuse); Society of Genealogists (London); Michigan Historical Society (on Board of Trustees for 3 years); Detroit Historical Soc.; Historical Memorials Society of Detroit; American Assoc. for State and Local History.

*The Five Generations Project is the Mayflower Society's monumental genealogical research program on Pilgrims and their descendants through their great-great-grandchildren, both male and female lines. The first volume in the series is expected in print in 1971.

WYNNESTAY

Begun in 1689, Wynnestay is one of three 17th century homes left in Philadelphia. This historic estate was built as a residence for Dr. Thomas Wynne, friend and physician of William Penn, with whom be came to America in the ship "Welcome". Wynnefield, the section surrounding this mansion, derives its name from this eminant physician.

The house exemplifies Pennsylvania's Welsh Colonial architecture. The heavy walls of local fieldstone are set in rubble style with white mortar, and the doors and windows are wide and low. The bold cornice frames a pediment in which there is a circular window.

One revolutionary battle was fought around the house and three Redcoats are burried in the lawn.

Soule sees familiarity as the primary reason for the program's longevity. "It was always the same, you know the opening announcement of It's Theater Time on the Great White Way for New York's fashionable First Nighters' then, the montage of sounds-traffic, taxi cabs opening, newsboys, the usher and finally, Mr. First Nighter taking his seat to introduce the play. People became comfortable with that. In fact, I still receive mail from many of the old listeners."

The luncheon itself was beginning to stumble. Pat Buttram performed his usual after-lunch routine, PPB president John Guedel assisted Tremayne with the introductions, and entertainment chairman Jack Rourke roamed the audience to introduce still another set of celebrities.

The anecdotes were being cut short. Guedel blew a small whistle every time he thought a speaker started to ramble on too long. There was conjecture that the next step was to have the dreaded hook sweep the stage to get on to the next act.

But the afternoon was coming to a close and guests headed for the door. The First Nighters, for the most part, remained. The great voices - old friends rehashing old times, but there was the future to talk of. The revival of live radio drama-Hollywood Radio Theater, the new CBS Mystery series coming in January. There was much to talk about.

Tremayne, in his closing remarks, thanked his friends for attending, adding that he had one of the best times of his life, and said, "radio's the best thing that ever happened to actors."

No one in the room argued with that.

Niles M. Sowle displays his novel Christmas shutter cover, for which he seeks a manufactuer

By FLOYD THOMS Citizen Patriot Business Writer

Whenever Niles Sowle, 57, wants something - he makes it.

Sowle, of 1156 Herbert J., was trying to find a novel Christmas decoration for his house in 1970. So he started working on a Christmas shutter cover.

He cut out strips of sheet metal, punched holes in it to hold Christmas lights, and painted a Christmas tree on the front side.

"I went through several models," he said, "at least ifve or six of them, and finally came up with one that snaps on over a shutter.

"I tlaos has holes in it so that it can be screwed to a wall on homes that don't have shutters." Sowles sent in his design to the U.S. Patent Office and on Oct. 10 received a patent.

Now he is scouting about for a manufacturer for his product — hopefully before the Christmas season arrives.

"It can be made out of sheet metal or plastic," Sowles said. "I feel that it can be very inexpensive to manufacture and am trying to find someone to do the job."

Sowles, a native of Jackson, is employed at Kent-Moore Corp. in service repair.

The shutter cover is the first patent that Sowle has received for his efforts, but he doesn own some copyrights on animal wall decorations he had developed.

"I never tried to sell the animals," he said. "They were more for my own enjoyment.

"I do feel, however, that the shutter cover has good potential in the Christmas decoration market and am actively trying to get it into production."

Sowle doesn't confine his talents to metal shutters and animals, either.

Sowle has built three mandolins, also.

"I wanted one for myself," he related, "and so I built it. 'Iam not very good at playing it, but it relaxes me

"My son wanted one, so I built a second one; then my daughter, and along came a third.

The Sun Will Miss Alice McKenzie

ONE DOES NOT lightly sit down at one's typewriter and begin writing about Alice 'McKenzie, for Alice defies casual description. Alice is, in a contemporary phrase, something else.

She is retiring this week and the newsroom of The Sun won't be the same without her. I'm not saying that's bad, mind you; I am merely conceding that her absence will be felt, much as her presence has been felt.

I call Alice "Grumpy" and she insists, with a quiet, subdued outrage, that I have no right to call her that. The name, she insists, does not fit. Yet she cannot deny her stern visage, which arises from her uncompromising allegiance to the laws of grammar, spelling and sentence structure, never mind her intransigence on the matter of accuracy.

Grumpy Alice is the one person in our newsroom and every newsroom needs one - who shudders visibly every time someone abuses our language or gets careless with the facts. She understands that every word and every grammatical device has a precise function and that these functions should be observed scrupulously, especially by those who would earn their living dealing with words and grammar.

Alice McKenzie is a joy, a delight, a repository of wit and wisdom. But she ought not to deny she's now-and-then grumpy, because who would prefer that she be sweet, angelic, ever-pleasing and dull?

WHEN I CAME to this newspaper in March of 1972, I was handed a list of names representing the staff I would be working with. (Alice, dear Alice, forgive me for ending that sentence with a preposition, please.)

Alice McKenzie's name was on the list, and so I knew she was here, but in the beginning she made no impact on me at all. She sat in the back of the room, minding her own business and, presumably, doing what was asked of her.

As the weeks became months, I became convinced of the need to replace a lot of the names on that list. We were having a clash of ideas, so to speak, and I was in a position to win each clash. It reached the point that those who preceded me to The Sun were wondering — aloud — "who is next?"

Well, as far as I know, Alice never engaged in such dismal speculation If she 010, 11 was a needless exercise, because I learned quite early in the game that Alice was a reliable, willing worker who had the advantage of sharing my ideas of what constitutes good newspapering.

At her age — Alice won't mind me mentioning the age factor, because she respects facts - she wasn't about to volunteer to go out and cover all the beats or handle the more pressure-filled editing tasks. But Clearwater simply doesn't produce home-grown journalists in abundance, and it became necessary to import new people who were handicapped (and, in some equally important ways, blessed) by being either new to the city or new to the profession, or both.

AND SO ALICE became a sort of instant reference source. I asked her to move to a desk right up front, near the city desk, and to read the duplicates of all locally produced copy so she could spot things the newcomers might have missed. Not that their missing them should be excused—any good reporter or editor should use the tools available to him to avoid such things.

But the fact is we had reporters writing "Louis" Homer instead of Lewis Homer when writing of the former mayor; we had cases of persons dying who formerly were prominent and therefore deserving of something more than the customary obituary; and, worse, we had reporters who now and then would abuse the rules of grammar.

Alice's job, among other things, was to spot these things and call their attention to the editors who, in their haste to meet deadlines or in their relative. newness to the city, occasionally had overlooked them.

Such a task would not endear most people to the offenders but I think I can safely say that Alice McKenzie has been about the most popular, well-liked grump I've ever known.

Anyway, with the year ending, Alice McKenzie is retiring, and if she'll forgive one cliche, I'll have to admit she'll be missed.

As Jim Beardsley, who has been here 38 years, said: "Through the years she has maintained one of the best attendance records on the staff, and no one could have been a more loyal, dedicated employe."

Beardsley, who sometimes must feel almost like a stranger among all the new faces that have dominated the newsroom in recent months, counts Alice among those "of a generation that was taught how to spell and communicate."

Next to Webster, he observed, Alice "is the arbiter for the newsroom when questions of spelling arise. . ."

Alice is a rare one. The Sun will be diminished by her retirement.

Every newsroom ought to have an Alice McKenzie . . . preferably a grumpy one.

CLEARWATER SUN

Clearwater Sun PISURE The Arts, Entertainment

By ALICE McKENZIF Sun Staff Writer

Clearwater can now lay claim to having a book all its own. No longer will it be necessary to pore through large tomes on the history of Florida in order to extract a few meager facts about Clearwater because in "Yesterday's Clearwater," published this week, it is all here. Plus a lot more.

And the man responsible for accomplishing this is Hampton Dunn, native Floridian, author and historian, who also wrote the books "Yesterday's St. Petersburg" and "Yesterday's Tampa" in the Historic Cities Series published by the E. A. Seemann company in Miami.

Other books in the series are "Yesterday's Key West," written by Stan Windhorn and Wright Langley; "Yesterday's Miami," Nixon Smiley, and "Yesterday's Sarasota," Del Marth. Others are in the planning stage and all have the uniform - and for today, modest - price of $7.95.)

"Yesterday's Clearwater" has 32 pages of descriptive text, the balance of the 160 pages consisting of excellent reproductions of early photos, many of which are seen on this page.

The majority of the photos are old, some dating back to the 1890s, but all are amazingly clear. The Burgert Brothers' old negatives were made available to the author by Henry Cox of the Tampa Photo Supply Co. Others were loaned by the Clearwater Chamber of Commerce; the Pinellas County Historical Commission in Clearwater; Lloyd Wyngarden in Dunedin, and many others.

One photo, loaned by the Clearwater Chamber of Commerce, is of "the gorgeous Belleview Hotel at Belleair," just after its completion in 1896. The structure hasn't changed a great deal since then.

The chamber also provided the quaint photo of the English bicycle racing team at the Belleview Hotel track about 1898. This was a popular sport of the day and attracted crowds from all over.

Clearwater had its own "concert band" in those days and there's a photo of the band performing in front of the

The book includes also much information and many photos of other areas of Upper Pinellas - Clearwater Beach, Dunedin, Oldsmar and other communities.

Recognition Scroll Presented To Dr. Soule

DR. ROBERT M. SOULE

The School Committee honored one of its own this fall when they awarded a Recognition Scroll to Dr. Robert M. Soule for his work in bringing a new high school to Melrose.

Signed by all School Committee members, the scroll cites Dr. Soule's "superb leadership qualities" and his service as chairman of the Building Planning Committee and of the School Committee.

A practicing physician in Melrose for 26 years, Dr. Soule was educated at DePauw University and received his M.D. from Harvard. Specializing in internal medicine, Dr. Soule has had first hand teaching experience working with medical students, interns, and stueducation took him to the Little White House Education Conference.

His four children have attended the Melrose schools, involving Dr. Soule in the PTA's of three schools. He was also the director of the YMCA.

In 1963, Dr. Soule was first elected to the School Committee. His biggest concern was the need for classroom space. His concern deepened when, despite the fact that 500 children were on double sessions and students were crowded 40 to a class, the voters of the community voted down a building referendum. Dr. Soule felt that curriculum and teachers are the heart of an educational system, but they cannot function if the classes are too crowded for learning and teachers must be disciplinarians instead of instructors.

Pointing out that suburban communities change populations every five years, Dr. Soule said that a good school system is an important factor in maintaining an in-flow of fine people. "If the schools go down," he stated, "the community will go down with them.

As Chairman of the Building and Planning Committee for six years and later as a member of the Mayor's School Building Planning Committee in 1968, Dr. Soule participated in 214 public meetings on the new high school. Having worked with the public, PTA's, the city officials, state officials, architects, educational consultants, Dr. Soule even appeared before the state legislature on behalf of this pro-

Dr. Soule sees the responsibility of the School Committee to give children "the best possible preparation for life." He looks for a continuation of the updating process that has resulted in a revamped curricula and has constructed new buildings in the next few years. Quoting John Dewey that "There is no reason that learning cannot continue as long as dent nurses. His concern for life continues," Dr. Soule says that this goal should apply to teachers, students, administrators, and school committeemen alike. This must be accomplished, Soule says, by the efficient use of the taxpaper's money without overburdening him with taxes.

Ancient Water-Powered Grist Mill Comes To Life In Plymouth, Mass.

see a water-powered grist mill operate?

It's an interesting sight out of the past, and one that thousands of Americans will see this year while visiting Plymouth during its 350th birthday celebration.

The mill is a faithful reconstruction of the John Jenny grist mill, licensed by the Plymouth Colony in March, 1636, and which continued in operation for 211 years. The old mill was torn down sometime after its operations ceased in 1847.

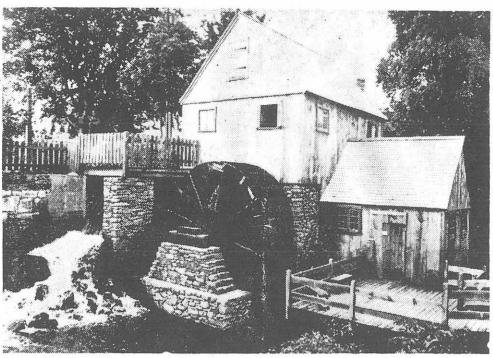

The new mill is the inspiration and work of David DeLory, a resident of Duxbury, Mass., who acquired the undergoing redevelopment and land on the edge of an area beautification in the historic town

Working over a period of three years, by searching records and historic documents, he was able to draw up plans for the reconstruction.

Building was started in the spring of 1969 and the mill opened to the public in the spring of 1970.

The new mill, like the old, grinds corn, powered by the fall of water from Jenny Pond into the Town Brook. Its 14foot-diameter "breast wheel" is 5,000 pounds. powered both the the current and the weight of water in its

The wheel turns a 24-inchdiameter oak shaft at a speed of 12 to 15 revolutions per minute. On the shaft is an 81/2-foot diameter cog wheel which

SOURCE OF POWER - Veneered water wheel powers the reconstructed John Jenny grist mill at Plymouth, Mass. Because of the scarcity and expense today of heavy timber that was meshes with a lantern pinion that rotates a 54-inch-diameter French Buhr Mill Stone on a large stationary bed stone. Together the running and stationary stones weigh about

To power that much weight by water demands tremendous strength in the water wheel, and building that wheel was a major task. Mr. DeLory turned to the Carleton Marsden Millwork Company of Fall River, Mass.

Carl Marsden, owner of the cusom woodwork firm, in turn contacted Gulf Adhesives, for help. "Today, timbers of the size used in the mill are just not readily available. Instead of oak and pine, as in the original structure, we used something not available in colonial times to get the size lumber we needed - modern adhe-

Now, for a small admission fee, visitors may view at close range all of the working parts of the mill, including the wheel. In addition, Mrs. DeLory operates a Candlecraft Center on the lower level of the mill where, during the tourist season, women in P;" grim dress demonstrate candle molding techniques.

Candles, candle-making equipment and fresh-ground corn meal are for sale at the center.

DeLory, who must devote most of his time and efforts to his regular sales job, manages to maintain great enthusiasm for his part-time job as mill

Editors note:

There are many queries that come in and are published each issue and I hope someone will have an answer to help these people. Please help if you can.

There are some queries that will be answered personally after this issue is published. I can pick up some answers from prior published issues and from the Mayflower Index that I have from my Historian's office of Indiana Mayflower Society. I will answer other lineages too if possible from my files. This issue I have two "DRAKE" items that I can supply and will do soon. Also I now have a copy of the "Genealogy of the DEVOL Family" which was given for me to use to help. From the desk of -COLONEL JOHN SOULE

"Let's Hear it!" For U.S.

In these days of unrelieved foreboding and gloomy news, all of us in this country could do with a little bucking up.

It isn't often that we get a chance to see ourselves as a neighbor sees us — and be cheered by the image.

Some time ago, Gordon Sinclair, the Canadian radio and TV commentator, broadcast an editorial from Toronto. Any number of people in this country heard it or have since read it, as it has been widely reprinted in newspapers in the U.S. It was inseried in the "Congressional Record" and became the subject of many editorials.

Mr. Sinclair's commentary makes especially heartening reading right now. For the benefit of those who missed it, excerpts are presented here

This Canadian thinks it is time to speak up for the Americans as the most generous and possibly the least appreciated people on all the earth...

Germany, Japan and, to a lesser extent, Britain and Italy were lifted out of the debris of war by the Americans who poured in billions of dollars and forgave other billions in debts. None of these countries is today paying even the running interest on its remaining debts to the United States.

When the franc was in danger of collapsing in 1956, it was the Americans who propped it up, and their reward was to be insulted and swindled on the streets of Payis.

I was there, I saw it.

When distant cities are hit by earthquakes, it is the United States that hurries in to help. This spring, 59 American communities were flattened by tornadoes. Nobody helped.

The Marshall Plan and the Truman Policy pumped billions of dollars into discouraged countries. Now newspapers in those countries are writing about the decadent, warmonging Americans

I'd like to see just one of those countries that is gloating over the erosion of the United States dollar build its own airplanes.

Come on, let's hear it!

Does any other country in the world have a plane equal to the Boeing Jumbo Jet, the Lockheed Tristar or the Douglas 10?

If so, why don't they fly them? Why do all the international lines except Russia fly American planes?

Why does no other land on earth even consider putting a man or woman on the moon?

You talk about Japanese technocracy, and you get radios. You talk about German technocracy, and you get automobiles.

You talk about American technocracy, and you find men on the moon — not once but several times — and safely home again.

You talk about scandals, and the Americans put theirs ringht in the s'ore window for everybody to look at.

Even their draft-dodgers are not pursued and hounded. They are here on our streets, and most of them — unless they are breaking Canadian laws — are getting American dollars from Ma and Pa at home to spend here.

When the railways of France, Germany and India were breaking down through age, it was the Americans who rebuilt hem. When the Pennsylvania Railroad and the New York Central went broke, nobody loaned them an old cabosse. Both are still broke.

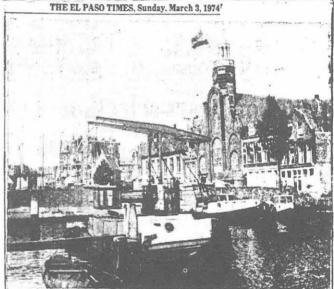

I can name you 5 000 times when the Americans raced to the help of other people in trouble. Can you name me even one time when someone else raced to the Americans in trouble?

I don't think there was outside help even during the San Fransisco ear'hquake.

Our neighbors have faced it alone, and I'm one Canadian who is damned tired of hearing them kicked around.

They will come out of this thing with their flag high. And when they do, they are entitled to thumb their nose at the lands that are gloating over their present troubles.

I hope Canada is not one of these.

Dear Mary Crismore:

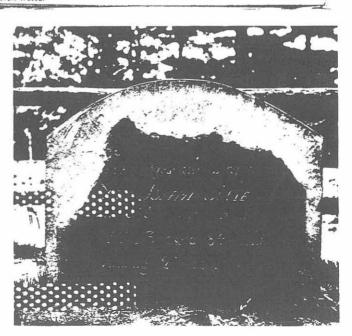

In re: your querie - January Newsletter, page 29. The work on Ancient Headstones in Duxbury cemeteries is being done by the Cemetery Bept. under the fine supervision of Laural Bradford Freeman, who is undoubtedly a descendant of George Soule.

The expense of the restoration work and cement encasement is borne by the taxpayers. I researched this matter quite thouroughly last spring when I contemplated doing an article on it--but found it too much for my bad ankles, to get the necessary photographs.

Very truly yours,

Isabelle Freeman(signed)

Wiscasset man murdered

DAMARISCOTTA, MAINE

MARCH 14, 1974

A Bath man was arrested Tuesday night and charged with the brutal murder of Albert Soule, Jr. of Wiscasset. Soule, 32, allegedly was shot to death in front of his home on the Old Bath Road. He was the owner of a rubbish disposal business in Wiscasset.

An autopsy yesterday morning at the Mayo Funeral Home in Bath established the time of death at about 7:15 p.m., Tuesday. Cause of death was established as "gunshot wounds".

State police and officers of the Lincoln County Sheriff's Office arrested Larry B. Croxford, 23, of Hyde Park, Bath, at about 10 p.m. that evening, according to P.J. Perrino, attorney for the criminal division of the state Attorney General's office. Perrino said that Croxford fled from the scene of the crime to Damariscotta.

Croxford was arrested at Miles Memorial Hospital where he reportedly had gone to talk with his family physician. Damariscotta Police Chief George Hutchings said his department received a call from the hospital after 9 p.m

"They called and said a man had just confessed to a murder and asked for an officer to be sent down," Hutchings said.

Officer Gene Blank responded to the call, staying at the hospital until state police and county sheriffs arrived. Hutchings said Croxford spent about an hour talking to Dr. Robert Hassan at the hospital before he was taken to Wiscasset, reportedly under sedation.

Croxford is being held in the Lincoln County Jail pending his arraignment in Sixth District Court today. He has been charged with murder, according to Perrino.

The murder weapon has not been found, Perrino said; verified only that it was a gun. No motive for the crime has been formally established.

Funeral arrangements for Soule are being handled by the Mayo Funeral Home in Bath. He is survived by his wife, Carol, their three children and his mother and father, Mildred and Albert Soule, Sr. of Bridge Point Road, Wiscasset.

New Hampshire Vital Records

Abstracted from the original records (or available copies) for SOULE KIN-DRED by SHIRLEY SOULE SMITH

NOTE: New Hampshire Vital Statistics have been kept in the towns since 1640, though they are not complete. Copies of all statistics records from that date have been made. They include town records, church records, cemetery records, and all other available old records. Fortunately, these records have all been indexed and are available to searchers at the office of the Registrar of Vital Statistics, State House, Concord, N. H.

Lewis Bert Moon's son was my grandfather who went to Okla. Territory after marriage and nothing known of the ancestors. Anyone that can help with any data will be appreciated and will refund postage for answers. Elizabeth Korany, 2009 Donelson Lane, P.O. Box 17494, Salt Lake City, Utah 84117 writes she is a descendant of George Soule through daughter Susanna that married Francis West. Needs additional information about this family.

Susanna Soule b. about 1633, Duxbury (?) d. (?) married when (?) to Francis West b, about 1636 of Salisbury, England, d. 1721 Kensington, R.I. Needs help!! Mrs. J. Malcolm Loring (Louise Hersey Loring) 18622 N.E. Wasco St., Portland, Or. 97230 writes:

Was William Brown, Jr. the son of William Brown who married Sarah Soule? William Brown, Jr. married Lydia Hooper and this is my lineage. Many places I find data about the Wm. Jr., such as census, etc. but no proof. Can someone supply proof of the Wm. Jr. being a son of William and Sarah Soule Brown?

Mrs. W. P. Elmslie, 30 West Lincoln Hill, Quincy, Illinois 62301, writes: My husband is a descendant of George Soule (lineage elsewhere in this issue) and we found the marker when visiting East. Where is his wife, Mary Beckett, buried? Is there any lineage on the Beckett line worked out? Would like more information on the side lines of the Soule weomen of this line.

Mrs. Gerard A. Doyle, 640 East Carlisle Ave., Whitefish Bay, Wisc. 53217 writes: I have my lineage worked out to Datus Soule who married Hannah Morris before 1836 in N.Y. His son was Charles Hamilton Soule on whose lineage I have worked out. See lineage on another page of this issue. Can someone supply the parents of Datus Soule and Hannah Morris?

Mrs. R. Minder, 16335 Worden Road, Holly, Mich. 48442 writes:

She is sending some SOULE data (see another page of this issue) and would like information on the Bidwell and Sly lineages for someone she is helping. Can someone supply any information on these lines? She add: "I would be able to supply more data on these lines." Some SOULE people might get a helping hand here. (Editors note: Do supply her with a self addressed stamped envelope.) Mrs. Alger Johnson, 1120 Grant Street, Evanston, Illionis 60201 writes:
Can anyone furnish the lineage farther on George¹, John², Moses³, Isaac⁴, Moses⁵, John⁶ Soule? I am still looking for the Moses and Elbridge Soule brothers. Need something about them. Can someone please help?

Mrs. Gene Hockemeyer, 1725 E. Lindbergh St., Appleton, Wi. 54911 writes:
My great grandmother was a Mary A. Soule or Sowle (seen both spellings.)
She was born 10 March 1841 in Dorset, Vermont (Dorset Valley near Tomah) moved to Wisconsin in 1856 and married Rev. Isaac Springer, 16 March 1860 and died in Saline, Mich., 25 March 1906.....All I have is an obituary of a brother that states he is a descendant of George Soule, Mayflower.

Sheri Zingmark, 93 Riverside Circle, Columbia S.C. 29210 writes:

My Soule ancestor was Olive Soule who was born about 1776 and married Isaac Beebe and died 1 August 1830, Chardon, Geauga, Co., Ohio. They had 10 children and one son, George Beebe was my 3rd great grandfather. They left N.Y. about 1818 and moved to Chardon, Ohio where she died. Want information on the SOULE lineage if anyone can help.

Mrs. Esther C. Clark, 415 S.W. 8th Ave., Boynton Beach, Florida 33435 writes:
One of my ancestors is a Jonathan Snow, whose wife was Esther. Hey had a daughter Lucy Snow. Could this Esther wife of Jonathan Snow possibly been an Esther Soule?

Margaret Louise Soule Hickey, 1450 Moody Lane, Fallon, Nevada 89405 writes:

In my search I find my gr. gr. grandfather Almond Soule was born 27 Oct.
1773, died 16 Feb. 1859. Birth place or burial place (?) He had 12 children.
One, Sardine III Soule, was born 19 March 1821 and married Sarah Chambers and they had 12 children. Sardine III died 1895 and buried at Guthrie, Okla. I think Sarah his wife died in 1895 also. Their children were all born in Ohio except the youngest son, Willie, who was born at Butler Co., Kansas. My grandfather Albert Mason (LeRoy) Soule was born 16 July 1852 in Wash. Co., Ohio and died Jan. 1937 and buried at LeVerne, Calif. He was married to Isadora D. Striker, 6 Nov. 1875 at Eldorado, Kansas. Their children are:

Lillian Irene Soule born 8 Oct.1878, Butler Co., Kansas Altie M. Soule born 16 June 1881, died 1883, Butler Co., Kansas Earl Alton Soule born 13 June 1884, Eldorado, Kansas

Norval Adelbert (Bert) Soule born 20 Jan. 1887, Eldorado, Kansas
My father was Earl Alton Soule, married Josephine Forrest Wagner, 12 July 1906, at Grandfield, Oklahoma. They had 7 children. I am the youngest of these children. My father passed away 14 Oct. 1964 and mother passed away 28 May 1967.
Would like to trace this lineage back to possibly George Soule. Will furnish data on the above mentioned family of Almond Soule. Need help!!!
Mr. John K. Butts, 12 Riverton Street, Augusta, Maine 04330 writes:

He needs some information concerning the wife of Zebedee Soule. (Col. John Soule furnished this - He had two wives, 1st Lavinia (perhaps Lovinia) Mathews, who married about 1805. 2nd Priscilla Crapo whom he married 26 Dec. 1820 probably at Waterville.) No listing was found in the gravestone in Waterville, but maybe someone from there could furnish that. No searching was made of town records either, can someone help from that area?

Mrs. J. Ed Franklin, 340 Dunbar Street, Jackson, Miss. 39216, write:
Have been doing research in an effort to find my SOULE ancestors, being Elenor (Elener) Soule, born 1763/4, died 9 Feb. 1853, Granville, New York.
She married Joshua Ketcham probably in Beekman, Dutchess Co., N.Y. He was grandson of Joseph Ketcham (1705-1785) and wife, Sara Conkling Ketcham. She was born 1711. This Joseph (1705-1785) left WILL naming son Joshua Ketcham, born 1730 (thought to be father of Eleanor SOULE's husband, Joshua. I have a letter statin as a fact that Eleanor Soule is a direct descendant of George Soule. (1). The letter does not give the name of Eleanor's parents. Can someone help me with this lineage? (signed - Virginia Franklin).

A REPORT ON A "SOULE DESCENDANTS REUNION" By: Chris Erickson, R.R. #1, Eureka, Kansas 67045

The Holverson School Building which is located 12 miles northwest of Eureka, Kansas, was the scene of the annual reunion of the family of Freeman Wilbur Soule on December 30, 1973.

Sixty-three brave "Soules" ventured out even through blizzard conditions prevailed. Karen Nordmeyer, Thedda Olson and Bertha Erickson (all daughters of Freeman Wilber Soule) hosted the event.

Ten of the fourteen living children were present. They were: Bertha (Soule) Erickson Sharron (Soule) Urton Betty (Soule) Uhl Eleanor (Soule) Tucker Joan (Soule) Talkington Thedda (Soule) Olson

Gilbert (Jerry) Soule Karen (Soule) Nordmeyer William Soule

Richard Soule

The following thirty-two grandchildren were in attendance -

Maurice Erickson Charlotte (Erickson) Oliver David Tucker Sandra Soule Sherry Soule Sarah K. Soule Rita Soule Timmy Soule Keith Olson Kent Olson Bill Urton Teresa Urton Carolyn Soule Vicki Soule Natalie Soule

Randy Talkington Tracy Talkington Pam Talkington Cindy Talkington Jonathan Talkington Karmellia Olson Kenny Olson Kendall Olson Byron Nordmeyer Janis Nordmeyer Nancy Nordmeyer Diana Soule Donald Soule Perry Soule Peggy Soule Becky Soule

Five great grandchildren attended. They were

Susan Erickson Jennifer Erickson Nancy Erickson

Jerry Nordmeyer

Cathy Oliver Cassandra Oliver

The real treat of the day was to have our mother, Sarah (Cronk) Soule with us and our Aunt Lulu Soule. This is the first time Aunt Lulu has been here for our reunion. She has resided in California since the late 1930's but returned to Kansas in October 1973. She is making her home with our mother. We are happy to have her living close. She is the last member of our Father's family.

With the inclusion of a few friends and several husbands and wives of family members the total for the day reached sixty-three.

BIRTHS

Born at Tulsa, Oklahoma, on 23 June 1972. Cassandra Leigh Oliver, daughter of James Lloyd and Charlotte (Erickson) Oliver - granddaughter of Mr. & Mrs. Chris Erickson - great granddaughter of Mrs. Freeman Wibler (Sarah Cronk) Soule and the late Mr. Soule.

THE LAWTON CONSTITUTION Wednesday, April 10, 1974 Educators' Group Receives Charter

A Southwest Oklahoma chapter of Phi Delta Kappa International, a fraternity for professional educators, was chartered here Tuesday night with 37 new members.

The installation team for the fraternity included Howard M. Soule, Phoenix, Ariz., PDK international president; Bert Stark Jr., Dist. No. 3 representative; Dean Fitzgerald, Tulsa, Dist. No. 3 coordinator; and Maurice Shadley, international director of special services.

Officers elected Tuesday night at the dinner-installation meeting, at Martin's Restaurant, included: Dr. Richard Mock, Cameron College associate dean of students, president; Richard Neptune, Eisenhower High School principal, vice president of programs; James Roberts, elementary education director for Lawton Public Schools, membership vice president; Charles Prichard, assistant professor of education at Cameron, secretary; and Wesley C. Barrow, superintendent of schools at Elgin, treasurer, and Dr. Loren F. McKeown, historian

Howard M. Soule, left, of Phoenix, Ariz., president of Phi Delta Kappa, presents a charter for a new area chapter to Dr. Richard Mock, local PDK chapter president.

While reading the paper this morning I came across the attached article. I thought it might be of interest to you for the Soule Newsletter. I am very grateful for the Soule Newsletter and the information contained within. Although our Soule connections come through from my husbands side of the family, I feel like they are my family too. Thanks for the Soule family organization and compiling complete and accurate records.

Signed: Mona Rood

(Editor's note: It is this type of Soule Kindred that keeps this organization going along and for keeping up with news each issue.)

Another Historic SOULE Family Bible

We are proud to present herewith the best reproduction available from the pages of a bible loaned to us by Mrs. Gladys S. Mathews (Mrs. Irwin Mathews) of Winamac, Indiana. This Bible is a King James I version printed and published by M. Carey & Son, No. 126, Chestnut Street, Philadelphia in 1817. Barely legible is the annotation, apparently in the purchaser's own handwriting: "Benjamin Soules Book Bought 17th of 3rd Month 1818 Price $4.25".

Our Historian considers this Bible record of particular importance in that it gives the ancestry and children of several generations stemming from "Benjamin Soule was born 1723" [all other records found give 1728] and "Elizabeth Davis was born 21th of 1th month 1730". [See SOULE NEWS-LETTER 2:117 Family No. 5235 and SOULE NEWSLETTER 5:57 April 1971 Mayflower Index No. 31,784]. Tradition from other descendants of this branch suggests with apparently reasonable tradition that both Benjamin and Elizabeth had previous spouses - Abigail Howland and -? - Davis respectively; also that the latter was a devout Quaker from Nantucket. Assuming that the date of her birth from this record is authentic (even though her husband's is not)it ought to be possible to obtain information regarding her parents, identity of her first husband and perhaps even the dates of both of her marriages from the generally complete records of the various Meetings of the Society of Friends.

Mrs. Mathews wrote 12 Jan 1969 that she was very close to her grandfather (Joel Soule) who lived with her parents from the time she was born until he died (15 Feb 1899) when she was nearly seven years old. She doesn't know the source of the story (Ridlon page 1017) that Joel Soule had lived in San Francisco but is certain it is in error. Her Uncle Azariah Soule was the only member of the family migrating to the west coast and he lived in Oregon. She also tells us that grandfather Joel donated land for the cemetery at Fairplains, Montcalm County, Michigan where he and his wife (Dorcas Conklin) are buried as her father, his first wife and five children.

Her lineage: Gladys 10 Soule Mathews, daughter of Lawrence "Lorin" 9 Soule and his second wife Lillian (Moffatt) Soule, thru Joel⁸, Benjamin⁷, Jonathan⁶, Benjamin⁵, George⁴, William³ and George² from George¹ Soule of the Mayflower. (KINDRED No. 5235-416X)

Transcribed below (with some editing and interpretation) is a small pencilled piece of deteriorated paper written not too legibly in some respects. This accompanied the Bible pages and purports to be a copy of the obituary of Joel Soule:

"Joel Soule was born in Broome County, State of New York, on the 15th day of July in the year 1813. He was married to Miss Dorcas Conklin on the 5th day of January 1834. He came to Michigan about the year 1844 and settled in Lenawee County but moved to Montcalm County in the year 1852. After residing in said County 40 years, he lived with his son Lawrence 8 years in Kent County where he died Feb. 15, 1899. He was the father of 8 children, all growing to man and womanhood of which 5 survive to mourn the loss of so kind and affectionate father, friend and counselor. Deceased was always a strict adherent to the Quaker faith in which faith he died."

Lydia Soule was born 10th of 3rd mo. 1854

Dorcas Conklin was born 2nd of 9th mo. 1813

Notes on these pages:

I only know of one child born to Benjamin Soule's 2nd marriage. A son whose name was Benjamin. All I know about him is that at one time he lived in the same locality as my grandfather at one time.

Record of Ben Soule must be wrong for I am sure he was my grandfather's half-brother and I am quite sure he outlived my grandfather.

As far as I know Howland Soule and Harriet (Conklin) Soule, my grandmother's sister, had only one child and she died in early childhood,
