EDITOR'S NOTE:-

Here it is time for another SOULE REUNION come September and as usual I'm behind in getting ready. I will make it though somehow. I haven't sent Mr. Tiffin any ideas for what we want to do and see. I know he will find something to see that I haven't seen before, so am leaving it up to him. Sounds like he has some good ideas.

We, Frank and I, are travelers in our "Avion" trailer and will bring it East with us. Then we can do some site seeing on the way over and back also. It will be fun that way and hope others will also do the same.

Just returned from a trip to Montana to see Frank's brother, wife and family. We were marooned six days in Montana near Glacier Park with rain, high water and bridges out. We finally made our way out with the help of a bull dozer that cut a road around the edge of the mountain. There were 42 trailers left camp that day and glad to get out onto the road again. So....keep the rain away and high water from rising and bridges from washing away, as we don't need two such trips this year. A trip we will long remember though.

The AVION people had a Rendezvous in St. Paul and we attended it on our way home. They had a daily newspaper, two to four pages, and I got it out for them. It was fun and I enjoyed the travelers that met there.

Look at Mr. Tiffin's ideas and come up with some suggestions. The last two Soule Newsletters have been quite small. Maybe his idea of fewer per year might be an answer to one problem.

We can't have a newsletter without news. Thanks to everyone who sends in materials we have managed to have our four per year. But, we need more items to continue as in the past.

Fewer Newsletters would cut cost of printing and mailing. Think about that or getting more items to build up the newsletter and sales.

Family lineages mean so much to people trying to prove lines to George Soule. We could print more of them if available. There are more and more being proven all the time. So prepare at least all new ones for publishing. Send names and addresses so people can write to you for help.

July 15, 1975

Here goes for my last letter before the Annual Meeting. This year has been a busy one and many things have not been done. Mail has been reasonably heavy and I have tried to answer all of the letters. Planning for the annual affair has taken time, but I think we are all set.

Some decisions will have to be made:

1. Shall we raise dues to take care of the increased cost of printing and mailing or shall we reduce the number of letters to two or three?
2. Who is ready to pitch in and help John on the five-generation project?
3. Any volunteers to do odd jobs?
4. Where should we hold the 1976 Annual Meeting?

If this issue reaches "you all" before the Annual Meeting, please be sure to let us know if you are coming. We need to know so we will have enough food for you. It will be served right at the John Alden House. A postal card will do the job. Be sure to tell us how many in your party.

A number of our John Alden friends are being invited to join us after the business meeting for lunch and a social hour.

To all that are coming, Good Traveling.

Very truly yours,

Kenneth C. Tiffin

EVERYONE COME!!!

STILL TIME TO PLAN!!!

The marriage of Miss Carolyn Jeanne Soule and Randy Eugene Johns was solemnized at 7 p.m. Saturday, June 21, at the First Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Edward Mesta and Evelyn Chamberlin of Burlington, Iowa, officiating.

Edward Parrish, vocalist, and Mrs. Thomas Gravett presented a program of nuptial selections.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a soft white polyester knit empire gown with high venise lace collar and a cathedral train. Her veil fell from a Camelot cap of venise lace, and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses, white carnations and blue cornflowers.

The mother of the bride wore a full length blue dress trimmed with matching lace, and the groom's grandmother chose a pink jacket dress. Each wore a white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Lamplighters Inn. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Ronald Willey and Miss Karen Helmick of Burlington, Iowa, and Mrs. Keith Sansone of Winchester. Mrs. Larry Lail, sister of the groom, of Cynthiana, presided at the guest book.

GENEALOGICAL GLEANINGS

Gleaned by Rea Clodfelter Whicker from a microfilm copy of the Town Records of New Marlborough, Berkshire County, MA:

Children of Moses Soul and Elenor, his wife

Charles William	born 21 Mar 1762
Elenor	born 18 Apr 1764 [sic]
Bildad	born 17 Sep 1766
Moses	born 10 Apr 1769
Isaac	born 4 Oct 1771
Mary	born 23 Jan 1774

Comment by Family Historian: Ridlon (page 931) gives these dates, except for the first given as 1 Mar rather than 21 Mar, but does not cite source. Published Pembroke Vital Records use the abbreviated "SOUL" spelling but give only the baptismal records of this family:

Moses, s. Isaac bp. 2 Apr 1738

Charles Williams,

s. Moses bp. 18 Apr 1762

[Since his mother was Eleanor Williams, and the final "S" used almost invariably by this eldest son, we have considered it logical to assume that this middle name is a family surname.]

Eleonor, d. Moses bp. 12 Jan 1764

[Since this date is prior to her birth date reported above, we suspect a probable error - say from Jun to Jan in translating the original into print.]

Bildad, s. Moses bp. 28 Sep 1766

Moses, s. Moses bp. 11 Jun 1769

Berkshire County records (Deed Book 13:329) indicate that Moses⁵ and Eleanor (Williams) Soule first bought land 21 May 1779 in New Marlborough (established as a "district" 15 Jun 1759 and made a town 23 Aug 1775). This Moses Soule served from New Marlborough in the American Revolution. In fact, he commanded the troops from that town responding to the alarm of 18 Apr 1775. Now, the fact that the two younger children were not baptized in Pembroke leads us to suspect the family may have migrated westward the length of Massachusetts circa 1770/71 or even as early as the latter part of 1769. [Kindred No. 2915]

Gleaned by Colonel John Soule from a beautifully hand written ledger found in Montpelier, VT, reputedly compiled by the then Town Clerk of Pomfret, Windsor County, VT in the 1920s to record all of the gravestone inscriptions then existing in the town:

North Pomfret Cemetery - Mary Soule d. 10 Mar 1787 ae 62

Ruth Soule d. 23 Oct 1838 ae 88

Comment: The birth dates suggested for Mary Soule of ca 1725 and Ruth of ca 1750 indicates the possibility of mother and daughter relationship with the mother old enough to have been the wife of a third or fourth generation SOULE man. Our files do not provide the slightest clues!

Jane & I have reservations at the Gov. Carver Motor Inn from the evening of Sept. 4th thru the morning of Sept. 8th.
We look forward to seeing you & Frank there in the heart of Souleland America-USA!

Jane has never been to Boston & the Plymouth area and is thrilled at the prospect of seeing all of the things I have described to her.

We may take advantage of Allegheny Airlines Liberty Fare, allowing unlimited air travel between all cities served by them, for a flat rate. That way we could stop off at several other cities enroute to Boston.

It will be a fun trip!

'Zit' is big cheese in the rat olympics

An intelligent and athletic rat named "Zit" won two of three events in the Instrumental Conditioning Olympics recently at Robbinsdale Senior High School.

Zit figured out how to run through a maze in 3.5 seconds, then amassed 84 in the broad jump in four tries.

It's all part of the animal laboratory part of Dr. Marvin E. Trautwein's psychology course, designed to test techniques in behavior modification. It's called "instrumental" because the rats are rewarded with a pellet or candy when they perform correctly.

Another rat called "Snowshoe" took first place in the Skinner Box (named after Harvard psychologist B. F. Skinner) by pushing down a lever 135 times in 8 minutes. He was rewarded with a pellet each time the lever went down.

Zit is owned and trained by one of Trautwein's students, Gregory Soule. Snowshoe's owner-trainer is Jim Reine.

The winners were presented with cardboard loving cup trophies made by the students.

Trautwein says the rat olympics will be expanded next year with rats from other schools to be invited.

Lulu Bensonhaver 100 Years Old Today

By NORMA GABLE
Daily News Staff Writer
Lulu Carr Bensonhaver is observing her 100th birthday today quietly with just her immediate family.

Thought to be Hocking County's only centenarian, Mrs. Bensonhaver was born Sept. 25, 1874, on a farm near Gibisonville that has been in her family for more than 150 years.

She was one of seven children born to Nathan Prior III and Elizabeth Friend.

During the past year, information has been found tracing her line of descent from George Soule, one of the passengers on the Mayflower. On her mother's side of the family, she is descended from Nicholas Friend, who sailed from England in 1674 in his own ship.

Gen. U.S. Grant was president of the country at the time of her birth, and she has lived through the administrations of a total of 21 chief executives.

Her girlhood pleasures were far simpler and remote from today's fast-paced technological times, including taffy-pulls, ice cream socials, spelling bees and, when the snow was piled high, sleigh riding.

Lulu is a lifetime member of the Gibisonville United Methodist Church. Until recently, when her eyesight began to dim, she read her Bible daily.

She was married to Charles Carr in 1892 and four children were born to them: Bruce and Newell Carr, both now deceased, Paul Carr of Gibisonville and Gladys Carr Humphrey of Logan.

Charles died in 1943, and Lulu subsequently married William Bensonhaver and moved to Logan. When the Bonded Oil Co. purchased their W. Hunter St. property, the Bensonhavers moved to 22 W. Front St., where her daughter, son and daughters-in-law care for her in her own home.

A family reunion is planned for next Sunday at the Hocking Youth Center at the fairgrounds, at which her 13 living grandchildren, 31 great-grandchildren and 16 great-great-grandchildren and their families will be present.

The relative traveling the farthest for his grandmother's birthday will be Dr. L. Paul Carr, recently returned from Europe, who will fly in from California.

Not many of George Soule's descendants lived to be over 100 years of age. Not many continue to have so many relatives and friends that she had and they loved her to the end. Proof of the kind of life she lived.

Dear Editor. I have a copy of Ridlon's Vol 2 and would be glad to look up any information for any "Soule Searchers". Just have one problem, the copy I have, has pages 64I through 656 missing, but also has a duplication of pages 657 through 672. If any one should have a copy with this error in reverse, I would exchange the duplicate pages for the ones I am missing. This was not because of damage, but an error when the book was bound.

Mrs. James Sowle. 609 N. Morton St. St. Johns, Mich. 48879

(Mrs. Thompson suggests the query and answers in the Newsletter might find the one who has the pages in reverse order)

Thank you

Mrs. J. Sowle

Dear Mrs. Crismore:

For several years now I have enjoyed receiving the SOULE KINDRED NEWSLETTER. As one who receives publications from several family societies I can say that this stands out over any other that I receive.

The pedigree shown on page 21 in the January issue is an excellent idea and can be a great help to the membership. I am enclosing one that I made up for my son. I think it is particularly interesting since he has Mayflower lines from all four grandparents.

Although I know that you don't put advertising in the NEWSLETTER I thought that the enclosed flier might be helpful to the membership. What I have put in the kit is what I wish I had had when I first got started in my genealogical activities. It would have saved me much time and effort. Before offering it to the public in YANKEE magazine I went over the program with our SOULE Vice President Gilbert Doane in Newport. As you can see I am promoting his book which after more than 35 years and four editions is still the best in the field.

Sincerely,

David L. Parke

Mrs. Gertrude H. Dowd (Mrs. Leo W. Dowd, Sr.), 1585 11th St., Chehalis, Wa. 98532 writes:

I belong to Mayflower Society through the Lineage of George Soule. I would like to hear from the Soule Family. I came here from Iowa and my grandparents came from Ohio, Mr. & Mrs. B. A. Hall. I am almost 86 years old and can't get back there to know any those people. If there are any relatives I would like to hear from them.

I have two sons and a daughter living here with their families. I have cousins in Iowa. Maybe others in Ohio. Would love to hear from some other Soule Kindred.

Editor's note: Why not send a picture and your lineage to Soule Kindred for the Soule Newsletter? Nice to hear from you.

NOW!START YOUR OWN
BICENTENNIAL PROJECT

Editor's Note: Do start your Bicentennial
Ancestral
Chart now.

We need it
when it's done!!

STIMULATING!

Yes, it can really be stimulating. Unfortunately for years people have gone to great pains to make up fan charts of their family tree. They end up with nothing but a skeleton! Now, in your Bicentennial Project, you can "bring it to life." Offered here is a "How To" Kit designed to put into your hands the basic items needed for your successful venture into preparing a family history, a history that you and your family are best qualified to write!

FASCINATING!

When relatives hear that you are gathering information about the family they will dig out letters, pictures, documents and perhaps even books about your early ancestors. Better results are realized if your parents and even grandparents are still living. They will have a wealth of interesting tales that should be recorded. But you must act now before your loved ones die.

EDUCATIONAL!

Not only will you learn about your family, but a great deal about the history of our country and the part your own ancestors have played in its development. Once you start your project you will be amazed at how much material is available. After you have sorted and arranged it, you can proceed to put it into permanent and useable form. Copies can be made for your family and for historical and genealogical libraries where they will have lasting value.

YOU CAN DO IT

Organizing and assembling the mass of records may seem an impossible task. But it can be easy if you let those who know how to help you. The "How To" Kit has been assembled with you in mind. Dr. Gilbert H. Doane, Fellow of the American Society of Genealogists, in his book Searching for your Ancestors (included in the Kit) will lead you step by step and he does it in a most entertaining way.

HOW TO START

Once you have the Kit you can begin collecting family stories, records, pictures, newspaper clippings etc. Libraries and homes of your relatives are full of all sorts of interesting facts about your family. Traveling to other localities as you look for data can be an exciting adventure. Most research is well within your reach. Additional supplies and books are available from our price list. Parke Genealogical Research can help you with your research, preparation, and ultimately, the printing of your history.

THE "HOW TO" KIT PROVIDES:

1. The basic book, Searching for your Ancestors by Gilbert Doane now in its 4th edition—212 pages full of important information.
2. Best quality Ring Binder—holds over 150 pages, has metal hinges.
3. Clear, simple Charts and Indexes—27 reinforced durable forms.
4. Family Group Sheets to organize your family records, easy to understand.
5. Storage Envelopes for collecting pictures, notes, newspaper clippings.
6. Sturdy Portfolio for trips to the library—complete with pad and pockets.
7. Easy to follow instructions and suggestions.
8. Continuing assistance as needed by the Parke Genealogical Research.

QUERIES & ANSWERS -

Mrs. Kelsey A. Wildman, E 2101 Springfield, Spokane, Washington 99202 - writes:

My third great grandmother was Sarah Soule, born about 1870, daughter of Edward and married John Jones Sykes, in Jan. 1787, supposedly at Westfield, Ma. Can any one help find her lineage?

Mrs. Robert Kaminski, 1032 South Thompson Street, Jackson, Mi., 49203 - asks:

Does anyone know the residence of the Hoyt's in New York State prior to 1850? Jane Hoyt Sowle of that time and place may have been daughter of John Hoyt (1870 Census) who resided with her then. In 1880 Permelia Hoyt was listed age 77 and living with the daughter. Also in 1880 Census the father was given as born in Massachusetts and the mother as born in N.Y.

Margaret Rogers Stackler, 1328 Allen Ave., Glendale, Calif. 91201 - writes:

I know very little about the "SOULE" in my family. My great grandmother, on my mother's side, was a Maria (Miria) SOULE. She married a Daniel Liles (Lisle, Lyle, De Lisle). Maria was buried in Northwood Cemetery, Belle Center, Logan County, Ohio in 1873. Her father was Dwight SOULE. Where he came from or any dates on him are missing. Maria's mother was a Rachel Du Bois. All I have on her is that she is supposed to have come from La Portes, Wisconsin, which can be in error because we cannot find La Portes. Rachel is buried in Patterson, Wyandot County, Ohio. I have her being born May 2, 1821 and dying May 28, 1890. She evidently lived in Forest, Hardin County, Ohio for a time.

MARIA SOULE 1837-1873
Dates I have - RACHEL DUBOIS 1821-1890

Mr. Paul Simmons, P.O. Box 648, McNary, Arizona 85930 - asked:

Who were Rachel Allen Soule's parents? There is George (1) Soule (m) Mary Beckett; George (2) Soule (m) Deborah _____; William (3) Soule (m) Hannah _____; William (4) Soule (m) Rachel Allen. Rachel Allen, born 8 Jan. 1692/3.

Ms. Patricia D. Schultz, 141 First Avenue #402, Salt Lake City, Utah 84103 - writes:

This letter is written to request a copy of the books by Rev. G. T. Ridlon, on the genealogy of the SOLE, SOLLY, SOULE, SOWLE and SOULES family.

My great-grandfather was David Asel Soule and I am told, his ancestry is outlined in these volumes.

If any books are obtainable, let me know and the price.

If there are no copies available, could someone help me get this information?

Can someone Xerox my lineage for me? Write me, please.

Alger and Roberta Johnson, 1120 Grant Street, Evanston, Illinois 60201 - writes:

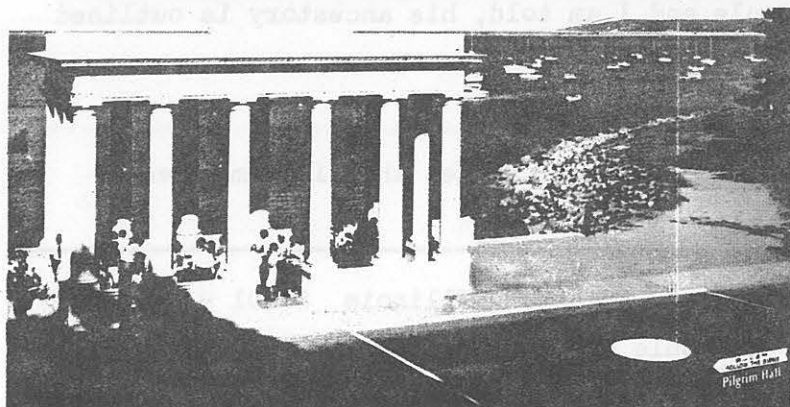

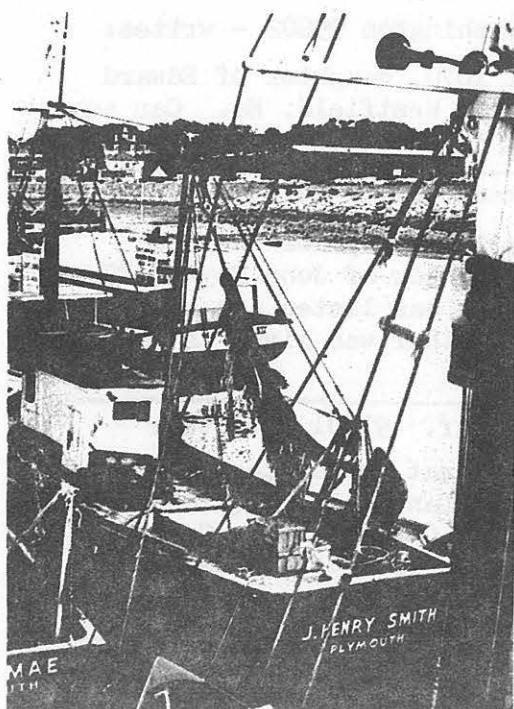

We are still trying to learn about Moses Soule of Troy, Maine. Troy, Maine was formerly Joy, 25 Mile Plantation, and Bridgeton, Kennebec County. We now find the name Brann in our Soule research. We believe Moses had three sons, Reuben B., born ca 1817; Elbridge G., born ca 1815; David, born 1814, died 1894.

Reuben married Mary Ann Brann, certificate issued 29 June 1844. She was born in May 1817 and died 22 November 1850.

David married Hannah S. Brann, certificate issued 6 April 1845.

Need help badly. All will be appreciated.
